Beck Will Be Asked To Resign

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — The Teamsters union's public relations advisers were reported today to have recommended ouster of the union President Dave Beck. The recommendations were before a union committee in session today.

Tony Smith, head of the union's news bureau, said his public relations firm has submitted a report to the union which "makes specific recommendations of what we feel should be done for the union from a public relations standpoint."

Smith would not give details. But the report was understood to include a recommendation that Beck's New Teamsters officials make a public demand that Beck quit the post of the 1¼-million member organization.

Beck's present five-year term as Teamsters president ends later this year. He has said he will be a candidate for reelection.

The public relations recommendations were being considered by a special five-man committee of the Teamsters general executive board.

The committee was named six days ago to deal with the problem of Beck's suspension as a vice-president of the AFL-CIO and as a member of the AFL-CIO executive council.

At the capitol, meantime, the chief of the senate rackets investigating committee indicated it will ask Norman Gessert, husband of Beck's niece, to Washington to be questioned.

Gessert, sought for questioning for nearly two months, was found and served with a subpoena last night in Spokane, Wash.

Gessert has been linked in testimony by witnesses at the senate hearings to various financial dealings by Beck.

The committee is still trying to locate Dave Beck, jr., and some others who were in on Beck's financial dealings.

Lone Gunman Is Sought for Bank Holdup

CALDWELL, May 14 (AP) — Federal bureau of investigation officials and enforcement officials in Idaho and eastern Oregon today pressed a search for a lone gunman who held up the Idaho First National bank in Caldwell yesterday and escaped with "under $3,500 in small bills."

The bandit walked into the bank shortly before it closed, directed Teller Lela Earsom to hand over the money and fled without a trace. It is not known if he jumped into a car for his getaway or not.

Arm in Sling

Bank Manager L. P. Remsberg, also eyewitness, said the bandit had his arm in a sling, which indicated concealed a gun. He approached the teller and shoved the box at her along with a note saying that the money be put in the box.

Remsberg said "as far as we know was alone."

The bandit was described as about 30 years of age, blonde, blue-eyed and about five feet 10 inches in height.

Description

On Sunday night, a blonde man, described as in his twenties, and a freckle-faced companion held up the Main and Fifth street market in Nampa and escaped with about $400 in cash.

Witnesses saw the market bandits flee in a car that later was found abandoned near the outskirts of town in Boise. The auto was listed as stolen out of Sacramento, Calif., on April 30.

Area Concert Group Names New Leaders

Mrs. James Kinney was elected president of the Magic Valley Community Concert association Monday night when the association's annual meeting was held to organize the 1957-58 season campaign for the concert season.

Four-State Baptists' Conclave Held Here

Approximately 100 persons attended the Baptist General Convention of Arizona regional conclave at the First Southern Baptist church Tuesday morning, reported the Rev. Harold Dillman, pastor. Delegates from Arizona, Utah, Idaho and Nevada attended the convention. Arizona serves as headquarters state for the region. Visiting speakers were B. E. Honeycutt, Pocatello, Idaho area missionary; Ira L. Marks, Salt Lake City area missionary; Dr. S. F. Dowis, superintendent of cooperative missions, Southern Baptist conventions; Dr. Courts Redford, executive secretary of the home missions board, southern Baptist convention, both Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Charles Leonard, foreign mission board, of the Southern Baptist convention, and Dr. Charles L. McKay, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Arizona.

A skit was presented by Mrs. King.

Dr. Honeycutt spoke on Idaho missions and Marks spoke on missions in Utah. Dr. Dowis will speak on cooperative missions at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Charles Leonard will speak on Foreign Missions at 7:45 p.m. and Dr. Redford will deliver an address on home missions at 8:30 p.m.

Wayman presided over the morning session. Keith Hamm presided over the afternoon session, and Herman Sollie will conduct the evening session.

CAB Hearing Is Started on Area Service

GREAT FALLS, May 14 (AP) — The need of smaller communities in the Northwest for airline service was argued yesterday as a federal hearing began.

The civil aeronautics board morning and afternoon hearings were expected to last three to four weeks. Thereafter, oral and written testimony will be taken and presented to the board, and it will hear oral arguments in Washington, D. C., by the five airlines involved. Then the CAB will make decisions expected to set the local air service pattern for decades.

The hearings in a Great Falls hotel are rare in being held outside of Washington. Representing the CAB are Examiners Merritt Ruhlen, and Counsel Howard Borros. About 30 lawyers are representing the airlines and several communities, and about 100 other spokesmen appeared at the opening session.

The airlines are Frontier, Northwest, West Coast, Western and United.

The first witness may have set the pattern of the case for the smaller communities. He was Paul J. Campbell, a Glasgow, Mont., hotel operator.

Earlier, the importance of future...

Sell Land

BOISE, May 14 (AP) — The state land department today announced the sale of two 320-acre tracts of land in Jerome county. One which was appraised at $6,400 was sold for $9,800 to Ella Shawver of Eden. The other, also appraised at $6,400, was sold for $15,000 to Ben K. and Evelyn M. Humphrey of Rupert.

Last Tribute Is Paid To Claude Detweiler

The largest crowd ever to attend a funeral in Twin Falls was expected at services this afternoon for Claude H. Detweiler, Twin Falls businessman and civic leader who was killed in a Wyoming plane crash last week. Services were scheduled at 2 p.m. at St. Edward's church. Mr. Detweiler's friends jammed the White mortuary Monday night to attend rosary services. Preparations were being made to handle large crowds at the funeral services. Twin Falls florists reported flower orders for Mr. Detweiler were "tremendous" as the community prepared to pay its last respects to a man often called the "No. 1 citizen" of Twin Falls.

Officiating at services were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. P. O'Toole and the Rev. Father N. E. Walsh. Ralph McFarlane was scheduled as soloist with Mrs. Nellie Ostrom Babcock as organist and soloist.

Ushers were Paul Kreft, Lyons Smith, Donald Zuck and Willard Rees. Active pallbearers were John Detweiler, Stanton Detweiler, David Hilty, Forbes Patterson, George Culver and William Hilty.

Honorary pallbearers were R. S. Tofflemire, Harry Eaton, Warren Larson, Miles Browning, George Ryan, R. P. Parry, John Platt, T. Clyde Bacon, Ray J. Holmes, Vey Hudson, R. E. Yourse, C. D. Hiatt, B. Y. Ellsworth, Charles Sieber, Clarence S. Blastock, J. Hill and Paul Kreft.

Concluding rites were held at Twin Falls cemetery.

Woolgrower Unit To Hold Election

SHOSHONE, May 14 — Members of the advisory boards of the Sawtooth and Challis national forests will be elected at a meeting of the Sawtooth Woolgrowers association at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the courthouse here.

During the afternoon the board will meet with forest officials and permittees with questions and problems will be able to present them at that time.

In addition to forest service officials of the bureau of land management, the fish and wildlife service and state fish and game department have been invited to the meeting.

Andrew Little, Howe, president of the state woolgrowers association, and Floyd Iverson, Ogden, regional forester, are expected to be present.

EGYPTIAN VICTORY

CAIRO, May 14 (AP) — The government-backed newspaper Al Shaab today labeled British Prime Minister Macmillan's decision to let British ships ply the Suez canal again "a British surrender and an Egyptian victory."

NEWS BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States may propose to Russia an "open skies" aerial inspection plan covering Siberia and Alaska.

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP) — Detroit Teamster leader James R. Hoffa and two others were indicted today by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to violate the anti-wire tap laws.

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — George Meany, AFL-CIO president, today agreed to meet Wednesday with a five-man Teamsters union committee to discuss "general problems of the Teamsters union."

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — Asst. Secretary of Agriculture Marvin L. McLaine said today the administration-sponsored flexible price support system was "oversold" because its weaknesses were not clearly foreseen.

Idaho's Royal Arch Masons Pick Chiefs

C. Merton Winegar, Moscow, was installed as grand high priest of Idaho Royal Arch Masons Tuesday during ceremonies at the Twin Falls Masonic temple. Election of grand chapter officers was held Monday afternoon during the official grand chapter business session and election. Winegar succeeds Herbert G. Fitz, New Meadows, to the office. Royal Arch Masons from throughout Idaho and representatives from neighboring states gathered in Twin Falls for the 49th annual convocation of grand chapter. The grand chapter was officially closed at noon Tuesday.

Other newly elected and installed grand chapter officers are Claude M. Gorden, Kimberly, grand king; Herbert H. Eberly, Boise, grand scribe, and Ralph P. Hadlleril, jr., Pocatello, grand royal arch captain.

Joseph W. Herndon, Salmon, grand captain of the host and Edward S. Lewallen, Wardner, grand principal sojourner.

Other grand officers appointed to serve for the coming year were William C. Hosack, grand master of the first veil; Marion S. Thompson, Boise, grand chaplain, and Roland R. Fletcher, Boise, grand sentinel.

Taylor C. Robertson, Boise, was reelected grand treasurer; Edward H. Way, Boise, was reelected grand secretary and Ralph Hopfgarten, Boise, grand lecturer.

At 1:30 p. m. today the 24th annual assembly of grand council of Royal and Select Masters opened officially at the temple. Donald Haasch, Moscow, is the most illustrious grand master. Howard Bates, Twin Falls, is illustrious master of Twin Falls council No. 7. The meeting will conclude tonight with ceremonies in the blue room at the temple.

Safety Patrol Picnic Slated On Saturday

Safety patrol youngsters from Twin Falls and Kimberly schools will be guests of the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday for the Jaycee's annual picnic honoring the young patrolmen.

Plans for the picnic were discussed Monday night at the regular Jaycee meeting in the Park hotel. The program will include a free motion picture show at the Orpheum theater at 10 a. m. and a parade led by the junior high school band. The parade will end at the city park where the patrolmen and band members will be treated to sack lunches prepared by the Jay-C-Ettes.

In other business, President Pat Patterson appointed Thomas Moore chairman of the Keep Idaho Green committee. Merl Smock reported on the progress of the YMCA movement and Eldon Jackson reported on the youth employment service project.

Jaycees also mapped plans for the annual Booster membership drive, with each member to contact four or five businessmen. Genneth Graham is chairman of the campaign committee.

Hussein Declines Meet Invitation

AMMAN, Jordan, May 14 (AP) — King Hussein declined today an invitation to meet with King Faisal of Iraq and King Saud of Saudi Arabia in Baghdad.

A statement from the royal palace said that "as much as it would give King Hussein pleasure to meet with his two royal brothers, present conditions, however, do not enable his majesty to make this visit at the present moment."

AUTHORIZE HOUSING

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — A senate banking subcommittee today approved an omnibus housing bill which would authorize 125,000 public housing units in each of the next two years.

Senate Chops More Millions From U.S. Information Office

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP) — A senate appropriations subcommittee was reported today to have slashed appropriations for the U. S. information agency $16,900,000 below the amount allowed by the house. A senator, leaving a closed meeting of the subcommittee, said it had voted to allow USIA $90,200,000 to operate for the fiscal year starting July 1. The house had voted the agency $106,100,000. This was $37,900,000 less than Director Arthur Larson requested, and $6,900,000 less than was provided for the current fiscal year.

The senators have indicated they are in a mood to at least hold the line on house cuts in appropriations.

The senate late yesterday passed a $3,884,927,000 treasury-postoffice department bill, and agreed with its appropriations committee in refusing to vote a penny more than the house.

Today two appropriations subcommittees met to act on the 665 million dollar state-justice department bill, cut 101 millions by the house, and the 871 million dollar commerce department bill, which was 217 millions below President Eisenhower's requests.

Both of these reductions were much bigger in percentage than the 80 millions which both house and senate cut from the treasury-postoffice measure.

Earlier today, Eisenhower told Republican congressional leaders at the White House he would "not want to assume responsibility" for the nation's security if congress approved of large cuts in missile and aircraft funds.

Teachers OK Security Plan By Huge Vote

BOISE, May 14 (AP) — Idaho's teachers have overwhelmingly approved coming under social security.

Alton B. Jones, state superintendent of public instruction, said today of the 5,748 ballots received up to now in the statewide election, 5,406 were in favor of the proposal, 342 were voted against it.

Jones said ballots had been received from all school districts except about 30 in distant areas and these would have no effect on the final outcome.

Voted Friday

Voting was done on Friday in the the school districts around the state for ratification of local trustees and school officials. Ballots were counted locally and forwarded to the state department of education for tabulation.

The next move will be an agreement between Gov. Robert E. Smylie, representing the state, with the secretary of the department of health, education and welfare.

The program of social security for teachers will then go into effect on Jan. 1, 1958.

Contribute 2½ per cent

Teachers will contribute 2½ per cent of their annual salaries, up to $4,200, under the social security program.

Up to now Idaho's teachers have come under a state teacher retirement system. With the adoption of the social security setup membership in the teacher retirement system will be on a voluntary basis.

All public school employees, including those who are not members of the state retirement system, will be covered by social security.

Not Under State Plan

Teachers hired after Jan. 1, 1958, will be under the social security program and will not become members of the state system unless they apply.

Smylie told newsmen when informed of the result:

"I am gratified that the decision of persons in the teaching profession is as unanimous as the vote indicates. This will provide for the most total uniformity of application of social security to public employment in Idaho."

Disintegrated

GAINESBOROUGH, England, May 14 (AP) — A royal air force Vampire jet plane was disintegrated by lightning while flying over Gainsborough during a thunderstorm yesterday.

Part of the plane were scattered about the town. The body of the pilot plunged through the roof of a new house.

Cattlemen Set Policy Debate At State Meet

LEWISTON, May 14 (AP) — The Idaho Cattlemen's association set the stage yesterday for a potential convention fight over the question of whether cattlemen should suggest governmental programs for other segments of the nation's farm economy.

The association's resolutions committee, following the lead of the American National Cattlemen's association, adopted a measure recommending "the abolishment of all subsidies including the soil bank grab." This was after the president of the state association, Milford Vaught of Bruneau, had taken the national group to task for what he described as an attempt "to tell the wheat farmer what kind of a program he should have."

The resolution is one of a number which will be voted on by some 200 delegates Tuesday at the close of the association's 43rd annual convention.

Large Population of Beet-Leafhopper, Many Host Plants Reported by Station

Annual report on beet-leafhopper conditions in southern Idaho for 1957 was released Monday by the Twin Falls field station, entomology research division of the U. S. department of agriculture's agriculture research service.

The report follows:

"Beet-leafhopper conditions in southern Idaho at the present time may be summarized as follows: "One of the largest populations on record since 1943 entered the fall of 1956, and the winter of 1956-57 under favorable conditions. This population was a third larger than that recorded in the fall of 1955. Germination of winter annuals occurred before the summer hosts had dried, providing good host conditions for the fall and winter of 1956-57.

"Spring studies of breeding areas which contribute spring migrants to Magic Valley were made during March and April of 1957 and have shown that host plants are generally abundant and widely distributed. In the large desert breeding areas, they are intermixed with grasses over much of the area and are maturing rapidly, reducing their potential for producing a large spring generation of leafhoppers.

"Many of the overwintered leafhoppers were moving out of such areas in late April in search of a more desirable environment, and many have already entered the cultivated areas. Russian-thistle, the most important summer host, which has germinated over large areas and will absorb many of the migrant overwintered and spring-generation leafhoppers.

"In waste areas adjacent to and within cultivated areas, the host plants are in a better condition for producing a large spring generation. These areas offer the greatest threat to the cultivated crops. Overwintered leafhoppers in representative breeding areas average 78 per 100 square feet of weed host this spring, as compared to 25 in 1956 and an average of 31 for the past 15 years.

"Current indications are that the number of spring generation leafhoppers that will move from the spring breeding areas into the cultivated districts of southwestern Idaho and Magic Valley will be higher than usual and that this movement, with normal weather conditions, will start in late May. Some of the more im-

Boy, 12, Wounded by 9-Year-Old Playmate

A 12-year-old boy was shot about 7:30 p.m. Monday by a .22 caliber revolver while he was playing with a 9-year-old friend.

Condition of Kenneth Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaffer, route 3, Twin Falls, was described as fairly good Tuesday by an attendant at Twin Falls Clinic hospital.

The two boys were playing at the home of A. B. Hobson, route 3, Twin Falls. They explored the glove compartment in Hobson's car and found the revolver. Jack Hobson, son of A. B. Hobson, took the gun from the compartment.

According to the boy, he does not know how the gun discharged. The bullet struck the Shaffer boy above the heart and ranged to the left shoulder. He was taken to the Clinic hospital for surgery.

Police Officials Quit In Row Over Traffic

Police Chief William Wright and Assistant Chief I. M. Hatmaker have resigned in Shoshone because they are not in accord with instructions from the city council to issue courtesy tickets to motorists for minor traffic infractions, Mayor Myrtle Burdett reported Tuesday. She said the existing applications for the two positions. Mrs. Burdett said the issuance of courtesy tickets for minor traffic offenses was decided upon by the council as a new approach to the city's traffic problem.

She said the courtesy tickets will be issued only when the question of intent obviously is lacking on the part of the offender. She said no courtesy tickets will be issued to second offenders.

The mayor said she has heard it reported that Shoshone is a "speed trap" and that an automobile club in California has discouraged travel to its members to avoid Shoshone.

Much of Shoshone's traffic violations are for running through the main light on the main line of the railroad crossing. She said Shoshone residents feel the city, because of the number of motorists arrested on charges of running through the red light, has acquired a reputation for being a "trap" and that the courtesy ticket plan is to be tried in an attempt to dispel this reputation.

Mrs. Burdett also said Wright's resignation was not prompted entirely by the traffic question. She said Wright also had decided to accept work on a farm near Buhl.

Mary Walton, Rupert, has been hired in Rupert on a charge of negligent driving as a result of an accident at 6:30 p. m. Sunday. Her 1947 Studebaker collided with a

Meeting Called On Spring Use

JEROME, May 14 — The Jerome county land and gun club has called a meeting of organizations protesting the commercial use of Niagara and Crystal springs for 8 p. m. Thursday at the city hall here.

The meeting has been called to determine further action to be taken by the group prior to the hearing on the application of the Crystal Springs Irrigation company to use water from the springs for power purposes. The hearing will be held in Boise on June 7.

Invited to the meeting have been the Idaho Power company, the state fish and game department, Jerome, Wendell, Gooding and Twin Falls Chambers of Commerce; North Side Commodities, Inc., Fourth District Associated Sportsmen's club, Southern Idaho Fish and Game association and the Twin Falls chapter of the Idaho Outdoors association.

Two Selected For Board of T. F. Library

The Twin Falls city commissioners Monday night appointed H. H. Burkhart and Mrs. Frank De Luca to fill two unexpired vacancies on the Twin Falls library board.

The vacancies were created with the recent resignations of Wilbur S. Hill and Mrs. Everett Sweeley from the board.

Hill's resignation was accepted last week by the city board. Mrs. Sweeley's resignation was accepted Monday night.

The three remaining board members, with Mrs. John Graham as spokesman, appeared before the city commissioners and recommended Burkhart be appointed chairman. The commissioners, in appointing Burkhart to the library board, then the chairman should be appointed by the members of the library board.

A motion to hold a public hearing June 3, on changes in the city's zoning ordinance was passed. The changes were recommended last week by the planning and zoning commission after the hearing the city commissioners will decide whether or not the changes and additions to the ordinance will be incorporated.

R. W. Ballou appeared before the commission, requesting a zone change on property where he proposes to build a golf driving range. At present, he stated, the land is zoned R-1D, residential duplexes, and he would like for a change to C-2, recreational.

The commissioners instructed the city attorney to study the problem and determine if a temporary permit could be granted Ballou so work can begin before the next meeting

Nomination Made For School Ballot

Gene Hull, Curry, has been nominated as a candidate for the position of trustee for zone 2 in the May 21 Twin Falls county school election, C. H. Ragland, school superintendent here, reported Monday. J. P. Anderson previously had filed for the post.

Carl Boyd, an incumbent, is the only candidate so far for the post of zone 5 trustee, the only other office to be filled in the election.

Signers of the petition nominating Hull were Fred Hartley, Gene N. Hamilton, Loren Miller and H. O. Link, all route 3, Twin Falls; George E. Cook, route 2, and Mrs. Rose Aslett and George Mencl, both Twin Falls.

Deadline for nominations is tonight, Ragland said.

Polls will be open for the election from 1 to 7 p.m. in Lincoln and Hickel schools.

Railroad Sued

BOISE, May 14 (AP) — A former railroad section hand sued the Union Pacific railroad company for $375,000 damages yesterday, claiming he lost his right arm in an accident at the railroad's Gooding yard.

Myron E. McPherson said he was knocked down and run over by a gondola car loaded with sugar beets last Nov. 13. He said the driver of the car had carelessly allowed it to roll free.

of the planning and zoning commission. If the change is not approved a ballot would have to move his project elsewhere.

The board instructed the city engineer to move a sewer line, which runs diagonally across private property on Washington street between Heyburn and Shoup avenues, so the owner of the property can use the property for building purposes.

At present it would be impossible for the owner to build on the property due to the sewer layout, the commissioners were told.

The commissioners approved a curb cut application for Frank Florence on the Highview lane.

A proclamation designating May 17 and 18 as Buddy poppy sales days by the Veterans of Foreign Wars was approved.

City Attorney Robert N. W. Ballelsen reported to the commissioners he probably will have Burnham hearing on airline routes being held at Great Falls, Mont. The hearings by the civil aeronautics administration will consider requests by West Coast airlines for service in Montana and Utah and increased service elsewhere, including Twin Falls.

Teachers Told

SEOUL, Korea, May 14 (AP)—The ministry of education today instructed woman teachers to avoid flashy clothes and makeup that might "lend to give undesirable stimulation" to young students.

"Don't wear makeup, don't dress colorfully, don't expose too much of the body," the ministry ordered.

air service planning for smaller communities was stressed on the ground that they would be unable to provide for tomorrow's jet airliners.

To show the flow of transportation, Campbell reported that two hotels in Glasgow provided rooms in 1956 for 2,453 persons from Great Falls, and 1,844 from Billings. In the same year, he said, 1,144 Glasgow persons stayed in Great Falls hotels.

Atty. John W. Simpson for Western airlines issued a statement that WAL would oppose any move aimed at suspension or elimination of its services at Helena, Butte, Pocatello and Idaho Falls. He said, "No local service carrier could or would equal our service."

Simpson added that Western would not object to substitution of local carrier service for WAL service to Logan and Ogden, Utah; Jackson, Wyo.; Lewiston and Cut Bank, Mont.

Combined School Band Concert Set

Approximately 448 members of the junior and senior high school bands will present a program at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the junior high school gymnasium.

The program will consist of folk songs, chorals, marches and concert numbers. Miriam Breckenridge will play a piano solo.

The combined and elementary bands consist of 116 seventh graders; intermediate bands have a total of 132 eighth grade pupils and the junior band consists of 80 ninth graders. The cadet band and concert band from the senior high school will play also.

Del Slaughter and Charles L. Ratcliffe are directors.

parked Ford pickup belonging to Earl Goodge. Damage to her car was estimated at $90 and damage to the pickup at $50.

Velleda Fowler, Rupert, also has been cited in Rupert on a charge of failure to yield the right of way at a result of another accident. Her 1952 Plymouth backed into a 1941 Chevrolet driven by Zena Knight, Rupert, last Friday afternoon. Damage to each car was estimated at $50.

Lloyd G. Moline, Boise, was fined $35 and costs Monday by Jerome Probate Judge Theron Ward on a charge of negligent driving. Judge Ward also fined Walter Durfee, Gooding, $8 and costs and Leonard Litterfield, Twin Falls, $13 and costs on charges of speeding.

Don J. Smith, Filer, was fined $15 and costs Monday in Twin Falls justice court for speeding—75 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone two miles west of Twin Falls on highway 30.

State police clocked one motorist driving 90 and two others 88 miles per hour Saturday night during a radar check on highway 93 north of Perrine Memorial bridge on which 11 citations were issued. The legal night speed limit in Idaho is 55 miles per hour.

One speeder was cited during daylight hours. All were ordered to appear in Jerome court within five days.

Those cited and their speeds were William D. Beck, Wendell, 90 miles per hour; Nicholas J. Trappen, Boise, 88; Virgil Peter Larsen, Las Vegas, Nev., 88; Walter A. Rodebaugh, Wendell, 76; Roy E. Powers, Boise, 73; Marvin Axtell, Jerome, 82; Leonard L. Littlefield, Twin Falls, 69; George Ash, Boise, 69; Calfe H. Peterson, Jerome, 68; Earl Hawker, Menan, 63, and Conlie L. Greene, Jerome, 60.

Clinton Abercrombie, Gooding, was clocked driving 74 miles an hour in the daytime. The day speed limit in the state is 60 miles per hour.

Hypnosis Outlined For PTA's Parley

A talk and demonstration of hypnosis was given for the Washington school PTA Monday night by F. A. Kallusky, Buhl.

The meeting, a potluck dinner honoring the school faculty, was the final of the year for the PTA. Dr. Kallusky discussed the history and background of hypnosis and its use in dentistry. He used several members of the organization during the demonstration.

Car Recovered

SHOSHONE, May 14 — A stolen car from Midland, Tex., has been recovered here by Sheriff Thomas Cooney.

The car, a 1050 Mercury, had been left at a service station by a man who gave his name as Lester V. Hansen. The car needed repairs. Sheriff Cooney said the man who left the car hasn't returned for it.

Golf Association to Meet

Twin Falls Men's Golf association will hold its first business meeting of the season at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the municipal golf course.

Cattlemen Set Policy Debate At State Meet

tion's stand against all farm subsidies and the federal soil bank program at its convention at Phoenix last January.

"There was no attempt to ram-rod the resolution," he said. "It was passed in a democratic way."

He added that the association welcomed criticism of the kind given by Vaught.

As for the cattle raising industry, Collins said stock growers should not be lured "by the promise of politicians" into giving up their rights to make decisions.

"I don't feel that it is time to trade these individual decisions for rules and regulations," he said.

Collins and Vaught urged delegates to await the findings of a seven-man fact finding committee appointed by the national association in January to look into influences which have depressed the market in recent years.

The committee was formed "because many, many people thought the cattle industry was in bad shape and getting worse," Collins said.

"Some people thought that some segments of the industry were regulating or controlling the market."

But there is no proof of this, Collins said.

He said the special committee, of which Vaught is a member, will look into such allegations.

Carl F. Neumann, Chicago, general manager of the National Livestock and Meat board, told delegates that his organization is doing research on the relationship between meat consumption and heart attacks.

He said it is expected the research proof will find that fats which come with meat are not dangerous to people with heart conditions if taken in moderation.

Neumann said that research sponsored by the board had established that liver is valuable in the treatment of pernicious anemia and the findings had taken liver out of the sausage vats and put it on the nation's dinner table."

Owner Offers Ambulance to Civic Groups

BUHL, May 14—Burnard Albertson told the Buhl Chamber of Commerce Monday noon that because of manpower difficulties he wishes to discontinue the ambulance service for the west end and would like to see the service transferred to other parties for operation.

Albertson said he has operated the ambulance service in Buhl for 19 years. He said he feels it is necessary to have the service in the west end and believes some agency of the city or county government should take over the project.

He stated it is impossible to operate an ambulance here without a loss and that he is willing to turn his well-equipped ambulance over, free of cost, to reliable parties who would run the service for the west end of the county.

The chamber voted to send a representation from the chamber to meet with the Buhl city council at the next regular meeting to help work out the ambulance problem.

August Averett reported on the meeting May 8 of the Magic Valley chambers at Twin Falls. Nile Casten, agriculture chairman, told of his committee's meeting with delegates of the "grassman of the year." He said the Granges, farm bureaus and other organizations are interested in the program.

Firearms Stolen From Cars Here

Thieves with a penchant for firearms and sporting equipment looted two cars here sometime Monday night or early Tuesday.

F. E. McCarty, Burley, told Twin Falls police at 10:35 p. m. Monday someone had stolen two fishing rods, reels, a tackle box and an old bolt action .22 rifle from his car while it was parked in the 100 block of Second avenue west.

At 8:05 a. m. Tuesday Lloyd Small, 331½ Third avenue east, reported the theft of a .22 caliber Smith and Wesson K-22 revolver and a carton of cigarettes from the glove box of his car while it was parked in front of his house.

Oregonian Waives Forgery Hearing

James V. Stacey, 44, Applegate, Ore., waived preliminary hearing Tuesday in Twin Falls justice court to a charge of forgery and was held for trial in district court. He was ordered to jail on failure to post $1,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace J. O. Humphrey.

Stacey was charged with attempted forgery. The charge was changed to forgery Thursday after police found he had cashed a $25 check at Safeway Stores, Inc., Saturday. The check was payable to Stacey, drawn on Pacific National bank and signed with the signature "Mrs. June Bassett." Stacey told police he did not know a woman by that name but "just wrote it on the check."

He was arrested Sunday by city police after trying to cash a similar check at Albertson's Food Center. Police discovered the Safeway store check Monday afternoon.

THE MANTRAP

The present day city, especially in its giant form, seems on the way to becoming the greatest mantrap of modern times.

Drawn by many lures, men move irresistibly, toward these human clusters in bigger numbers. Yet once they get there, many dream only of escape, and fail to plotting endlessly either to get out or somehow lick the disadvantages of today's crowded city living.

Tune in at random on street-corner comment:

"Joe, why don't you get a spot a little farther out in the country? It's 45 minutes from town, but you can get your reading done going and coming."

"This new development we're thinking of going into is great. No through traffic for the kids to worry about, nice big shopping center with plenty of parking space, master TV aerials for every five units, lots of advantages."

"Boy, I've got to get the kids out of here to some place where they can see what a cow looks like and get a real whiff of spring. All they get around here is dirty snow in winter and the smell of asphalt and dust in summer."

The list, it goes, in countless variations. Steadily, those drawn to the cities do press outward, looking for space, for a spot of green, for a few of nature's fragrances, for relief from noise and bustle.

The fringe growth of the cities is the proof of this mounting quest. But as it builds and builds, the fringes themselves become tighter packed and the searchers look farther and farther into the country.

A lot of people find enough of what they want to feel reasonably content. But for millions of American breadwinners the triumph can never be more than partial.

Whatever locale they establish for their families amid the trees, terraces and barbecue pits, they themselves still must make the daily trek to the grubby stone and steel jungle.

*There they sit gazing at the piles of ma*sonry—man's monuments to his insistence on being near his customers and suppliers—scheming new ways to cadge an extra hour a week or a day away from the whole inhuman mess.

Tomorrow some engineer will think of a new way to get traffic out of the city faster. Trouble is, it will also make it easier to get back to the place come Monday morning.

TASK WELL DONE

Sen. John Kennedy's special committee has discharged well its appointed task of choosing the top five outstanding former members of the U. S. senate.

Of course many will disagree with one or more of the selections. When only five are chosen, inevitably some brilliant and highly effective senators must be excluded.

The committee fully understood this problem as it finally settled upon Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, John C. Calhoun, Robert M. La-Follette and Robert A. Taft. By mere hairline was it compelled to leave out such admiring senate servants as George W. Norris and Thomas Hart Benton, 19th century Missouri-Democrat.

For a time the word went around that Kennedy's group would dodge the controversial business of including senators from the 20th century. But Kennedy, always a forthright figure, saw to it that that issue was squarely faced.

Not a single one of the five selected is thoroughly free of controversy, even though some are deep in the mists of past history. But Kennedy and his associates obviously tried as conscientiously as they knew how to thread their way through the morass of differing judgments.

They addressed questionnaires to 150 history scholars, polled all senators and solicited views from far and wide. It is interesting to note that the late Senator Taft was the top choice of senators polled, and ranked among the first 10 in the scholars' reports.

As a footnote to the Kennedy committee's excellent job, let it be recorded that the group spent only 6 per cent of its allotted appropriation, turning back $9,466 of the $10,000 voted for its work. All in all, a model demonstration of how to run a committee.

LOOK OUT, BOSSES!

For all those wives of men in business and government who share their husbands' fears of "the boss," Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, wife of the secretary of defense, showed the way toward a kind of partial emancipation.

When President Eisenhower rebuked Wilson for criticizing the national guard, Mrs. Wilson sprang to the secretary's defense and barked: "Uncalled for." Feminine backbones stiffened all across the nation.

Now she has had her reward. The Women's National Press club has saluted her as "the spunkiest woman of the year."

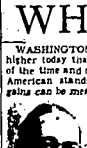

Since the boss in this case is the President of the United States, what Mrs. Wilson said indeed took nerve.

Celebrating her spunk may serve to give the ladies another shot in the arm. In fact it enough is made of a woman successfully talking back to her husband's boss; the idea may spread to the men themselves.

Listen closely. All that stern talk in the front office may not be coming from just one side of the boss' desk.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—The cost of living is not much higher today than it was before World war I, in view of the time and money-saving devices that have lifted American standards to "undreamed-of levels. These gains can be measured in actual dollars and cents, according to government experts on human living. They disagree entirely with the stand-pat economists headed by Rep. Victor L. Anfuso, the Brooklyn farmer, will include these factors in its current investigation of living costs, especially food. Otherwise they will present only one side of the picture, and that, a dark and distorted canvas.

Ray Tucker

FAMILIES NOW GETTING MORE FOR THEIR MONEY—According to this theory, it is not only the customers' demand for grocery parking lots, trading stamps and luxuriously packaged goods that have boosted retail prices.

American families are getting more for their money on every product they buy, from vegetables to television sets and automobiles. They actually have more money, leisure, advantages in human comfort, leisure, health and enjoyment are weighed against their investment in living.

It will require a small authoritative body than a congressional committee to study and explore all the implications of the postwar revolution in living costs and standards.

Chairman Anfuso should call as witnesses some of the statisticians and miner officials from agriculture, commerce, the public health service and the bureau of standards, if he wishes to present a true balance sheet of American life today.

*EXAMPLES OF REVOLUTION IN LIVING.—How-*ever, a few examples will suffice to explain and even to dramatize this theory:

An electric icebox, for instance, costs about $400, as against $50 for the old-fashioned wooden thing of long ago. But the operational cost will run about $1 a month, instead of $15 to $17 for melting ice. And there is no comparison between the service rendered—ice cubes versus icebergs.

*With the modern equipment, however, the house-*wife can buy perishable foods of all kinds, obtaining them at bargain sales and preserving them in her freezer. She can prepare meals in minutes instead of hours, instead of a winter diet of root foods—boiled tops, turnips, beets, etc.—which will have lost their vitamin content from long storage, a family enjoys the finest and freshest of nutritious vegetables every month of the year.

Both gadgets insure and possible longevity, two of life's most valuable assets, result. Other contributions to ease and enrichment of living are all the other seemingly expensive household appliances—electric vacuum cleaners, washing machines, mechanical dishwashers.

ALMOST MAIDLESS ECONOMY—Thanks to these *gadgets, the United States has become almost a maid*less economy. And the maids now earn from $30 to $40-a-week at Washington for an eight-hour day, their salary, with the other costs, exceeds $2,000 a year the investment in all these maid-saving devices. And that is without any allowance for the value of a housewife's time!

Television sets in radio sets come high for their initial cost, although they last for several years. But the money saved in 12 months on free home viewing of world series and bowl games, the best of actors and actresses, operas, educational and travel films more than balances the expenditure. Broadway has been brought to Main street.

Automobiles are costly. But the shift to pleasant and healthful suburban living makes them a relatively inexpensive form of transportation. Without them, there could be no eight-hour day or five-day week, or the extended vacations which contribute so much to national vitality.

These are only a few of the actual dollars-and-cents benefits of the economic revolution which no mere congressional inquiry can measure.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

BLASTING THE BARRIER

The senate constitutional rights subcommittee reports it has found "an alarming increase in recent years in the frequency with which information about the activities of the government has been withheld from the public.

After a survey of the problem Senator Hennings of Missouri, subcommittee chairman, said:

As a general proposition, secrecy in government is completely contradictory to the concepts of freedom and self-government on which this nation was founded. Only when the people have access to the maximum amount of information can a system of self-government operate effectively.

With this in mind, Senator Hennings is sponsoring a bill to amend the public information section of the administrative procedure act. Government agencies and officials have withheld information about their activities by citing this section, he says, even though it was passed specifically to insure that the voters would receive more information about their government.

The proposed amendment would make the section's meaning clear and limit governmental secrecy to three areas about which there is little argument; Information involving national security information exempt from disclosure by specific statute, and information kept confidential to avoid unwarranted invasions of privacy.

There is no cure-all for the problem of secrecy in government. Laws and restrictions are subject to various interpretations. But an amendment such as Senator Hennings proposes is need to discourage the growing practice of temporarily using a freedom of information guarantee to hide pertinent facts about government from the people who need these facts to perform their democratic duties.—Salt Lake Tribune.

SWITCHBACK

Horror of horrors! The Pennsylvania railroad, which a couple of weeks ago announced that its trains would run on daylight saving time this summer, has been shunted into a blind siding. It seems that there is such a thing as the Standard Time act, which specifies that railroads must run on standard time; and there is also the problem, of which the interstate commerce commission has reminded the management, of what Pennsylvania trains would do in terminals where tracks are used jointly with railroads not observing daylight time. This just proves, we suppose, what the Pessy should have known—that the bureaucrats will get you in the end. Nevertheless, the Pessy deserves applause for a good try. One of these days the regulators will yet catch up with the time.—Washington Post.

CUT TAXES, SPEND MORE

In a report to constituents, a congressman from Oregon says: "The proposed federal budget for 1948 has brought a flood of letters to my office. Almost without exception, the letters urge cuts . . . Some letters . . . urge me to vote to repeal the income tax and to cut the budget—and also to vote for a pension to every citizen over 65."

This is simply an extreme example of a widely-held public attitude—everybody should be confined to "the other fellow." So long as it prevails, we will have grossly swollen budgets, confiscatory taxation, and we will face the specter of more inflation.—Idaho Falls Post-Register.

TRAFFIC DENSITY

There is a reason for heavy automobile traffic that annoys motorists and keeps experts working overtime on possible ways out of the congestion.

It is the record total of 3,114,774 motor vehicle registrants in the Los Angeles metropolitan area, or 47 per cent of all the cars in California.

The Chamber of Commerce also has figures that show the Los Angeles metropolitan area has more registered vehicles than 41 individual states.

So don't let the next traffic jam tear your nerves apart. There is some consolation in the fact that all of the more than 3,000,000 cars are not in use at the same time. If they were it might take a day or two to get home from work.—Los Angeles Times.

POT SHOTS

NO SUCH NUMBER

Monday being May 13 brought to mind a reporter who refused to admit there was any such figure as 13. When the 13th of the month rolls around, he studiously avoided that figure. If he wrote a dateline on May 13, it would come out either May 12 or May 14.

Furthermore, if he came across the fatal figures in the middle of a story, they met the same fate. Or if absolutely unavoidable, it would come out "a dozen and one."

*This guy carried it to the ex*treme—he wouldn't even mention the number when talking and if asked to count would skip from 12 to 14 without hesitation!

FUP FOR KIDS DEPT.

You can pick up this mother-pooch and her puppy at 1246 Seventh avenue east. The mother is a terrier with black and brown markings and the pup is light brown. The offspring is quaint mongrel old. The family is leaving and has to give the poochee away.

NO STRAY DOG

In glancing back through the T-N for Sunday and Monday, we noticed again the little item about the lost spaniel pup. Tuesday morning found the postoffice apparently trying to "find itself."

Then there was an immediate answer from "Dog Trainer" pointing out that P. S. knows virtually nothing about dogs and adding that the pooch was quite obviously just bumbling around.

Although we never so much as glimpsed the pooch, we think "Dog Trainer" is being just a little rough on P. S. himself as the weather was a bit on the rainy side Saturday, we'd like to point out that the dog wouldn't be out in such weather if he's as well trained as designs. Maybe people don't have enough sense to come in out of the rain, but dogs do.

Probably he won't see this little squib, but we'll leave it up to the owner: Is Pot Shots right or wrong?

STILL GRIPING?

Pots:

Been a lot of griping around here lately about the wet weather.

Obviously, folks have forgotten how to read.

Been a few rainstorms in a place called "Texas" too.

Matter of fact, those Texans have been getting more rain in two or three hours than we get in a month or more!

Now, is anyone still in mood for griping?

WHAT CAUSES IT?

Several times in the last few days we've heard various people asking why Twin Falls schools are so "late" in starting summer vacation. Someone else may have the answer, we don't.

In each case someone has commented about the lateness, it has been pointed out that most schools in the valley start at the same time. Then nearly all other schools have two weeks of harvest vacation which is no longer observed by Twin Falls schools.

On top of that, the questioners say nearly every school in the valley has been dismissed before Twin Falls students start their summer vacation. Maybe is just seems that way, huh?

WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Ex-president Harry S. Truman is just as full of beans as ever, and he's scrapping every step of the way.

His breezes into Washington for the week-end meeting of the Democratic national committee, its 24-member advisory council and a $100-a-plate dinner which was anything but a sellout.

It showed that even if the Republicans are now critical of President Eisenhower, they aren't deserting the GOP to join the Democrats.

Peter Edson

In fact, President Eisenhower got a few kind words from the Democratic leaders—but only a few.

"I never criticize the President of the United States," Truman declared in a bull session with a few reporters. "The President of the United States always has enough troubles, as it is," he explained.

But for the next two days he did little else but criticize the Eisenhower administration.

While the usual pitch of a political elder statesman is to counsel harmony and to tell various factions that they ought to pull together for the good of the party, Truman took just the opposite course.

"The Democrats should stick to the welfare of the people," Truman urged as the first rule of his party.

"I don't expect them to stick together. They never have. They're like cats. When cats fight, it just means more cats. When Democrats fight over issues, it just means more Democrats.

Congress is the place where the party fights ought to originate," Truman insisted. "But a great many of our people up there are new at this business. They don't know how to work these things out."

Truman declined to say who the next leader of the Democratic party would be. "A good man will come up," he said with assurance. "One always has. I don't know who he will be."

Truman said he was going to "look 'em over" during his two-day stay in Washington. But he left town without saying if he had found the new candidate he would back for 1950.

Truman's only comment on Governor Stevenson was, "The voters expressed their opinion of Governor Stevenson in the last election."

Truman and Stevenson met on outwardly friendly enough terms in Washington, as they have since Chicago. They both sat in on meetings of the advisory council.

On the Eisenhower budget, both Truman and Stevenson threw their support to the President. This will probably damn it more with Republican critics than if the two Democrats had criticized it.

Stevenson warned the Democrats against joining in the budget-cutting drive, if they wanted to be taken seriously as "the party of the people."

Truman dismissed it with, "People always criticize the budget. I never paid any attention to 'em."

The inference was plainly that President Eisenhower *should fol*low the same policy.

Picturing himself as "just a newspaper columnist and a college lecturer now," Truman declared that "I'm not a pessimist," even though he had plenty of criticism to throw at the way the Republican administration was running things.

In his writing and lecturing, Truman seems to be counseling the government to take bold action to avoid crises, instead of waiting till a crisis arises, then trying to get out of it.

"The two worst things in the world are to try to be a prophet and to look backward," he says.

He's to be a prophet. I'm not being educated."

The thing he is looking forward to most, he says, is the dedication of the Truman memorial library in Independence, Mo., on July 6. That, and the arrival of his first grandchild.

Petition Is Filed In Estate Matter

A petition for letters of administration in the estate of Mary Jane Howells was filed Monday in Twin Falls probate court by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy M. Smith.

The estate consists of real and personal property valued at approximately $4,800. Mr. Howells died Dec. 21, 1955.

Heirs besides the widow include a son, Lesley B. Howells, and three daughters, Shirley Ann Howells, Mary Jane Howells and Marilyn Kay Howells.

A hearing of the petition is set for 2:30 p.m. May 23.

Farm Department Develops Metering

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—The agriculture department has developed an electric meter which reduces the time required in determining moisture content of soybeans from 10 to 14 hours to 4 minutes.

The meter was hailed by officials as an important development from the standpoint of both producers and buyers.

Since high moisture content promotes rapid deterioration and affects milling quality, it is considered one of the most if not the most important factor in determination of grade.

Painter Says Hollywood Cost Him 30 Years Out of Lifetime

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP)—"Hollywood ruined me," said Harry Lachman, a famous painter who became a film director and now at 71 has taken seriously to his paint brush and easel.

Never heard of Harry Lachman? Well he was a pioneer impressionist whose works hang in a half a dozen leading museums and won him the French Legion of Honor. Opera singer Mary Garden once bought one of his paintings with a $3,000 check she had *just received for sing*ing "Aida." Endorsing the check to Lachman she said, "Art for art!"

Hal Boyle

Never heard of Harry Lachman? Remember "Baby Take a Bow," the picture that springboarded Shirley Temple to stardom? Lachman directed it.

Recently Lachman, a slender, witted man with fabulous memories, has had five successful careers—as illustrator, photographer, impressionist painter, movie director and businessman.

Born in LaSalle, Ill., and orphaned at four, he never attended an art school in his life.

"But at 19 I was a magazine illustrator selling covers to the Saturday Evening Post and Cosmopolitan," he recalled.

Then he switched to the still camera and became one of Chicago's top photographers of children.

Soon after, Lachman went to Paris where he painted for 18 memorable years as a contemporary of Monet, Renoir, Matisse, Rodin and Modigliani.

Lachman himself did well. He sold 45 of the 55 paintings at his first one-man show, including two to the Luxembourg museum.

He next accepted an invitation by director Rex Ingram to help make "Mare Nostrum," then became a director himself.

"Then I was taken to Hollywood and I am ruined," he said ruefully. "I made a really great picture with Spencer Tracy called 'Face in the Sky.' The critics said it was 'an artwork she had *just received for sing*ing "Aida." Endorsing the check to about a picture then. It scared everybody away.

"But to show I could turn out a commercial picture, I made 'Baby Take a Bow' with Shirley Temple for $144,000—and it grossed millions.

"Then I had to make a series of bad pictures. I didn't like myself. I was making $1,200 a week when I gave it up more than 10 years ago."

Lachman became a successful novelty manufacturer. Last year he took up painting again at the urging of Armand Hammer, a Manhattan art gallery owner, and Mrs. Grace Robinson, former wife of Edward G. Robinson, movie actor.

The first two paintings the Robinsons bought when they began assembling their $3,000,000 art collection were painted by Lachman.

"They were the only paintings Mrs. Robinson refused to part with when the collection recently was sold at auction.

Lachman, who has an exhibition at the Hammer Gallery, is exhilarated because he feels he has regained his old mastery of the brush.

"It was a mistake to give it up," he mourned. "The films were not worth it. I lost 30 years out of my life."

2 Divorce Cases Entered in Court

Two divorce complaints were filed Monday in Twin Falls district court.

Cruel and unhuman treatment is charged in a complaint filed by Mary Lucy Ella Bonner against Rex R. Bonner.

They were married Jan. 4 1944, Emmett. No minor children are involved.

She asks that Bonner pay her $30 a month. She also seeks attorney fees.

Mrs. Audrey Lou Schray asks the court to grant her a divorce from Frank S. Schray on grounds of willful neglect.

They have one child and no community property. They were married at Elko, Nev., on Dec. 11, 1939.

She seeks custody of the child and all personal property in her possession.

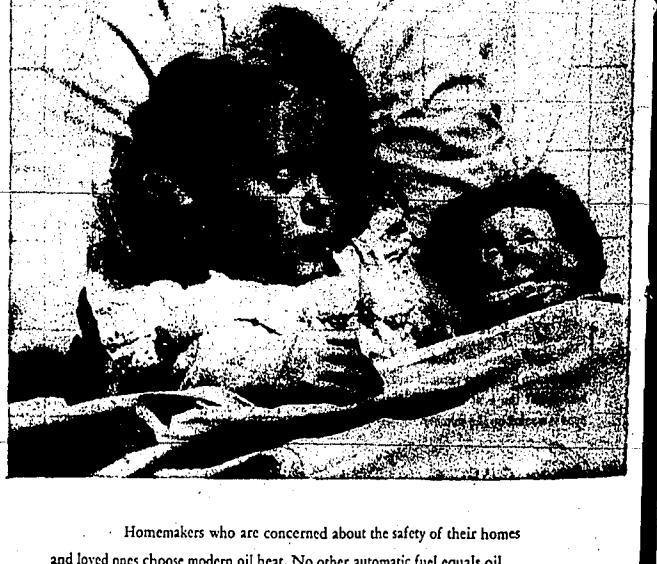

Jail Term Set on Disturbing Peace

Rickey Heck, 24, 302 Jefferson street, was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 15 days in the county jail Monday by Justice of the Peace J. O. Pumphrey on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Heck pleaded guilty Saturday to a complaint against him signed by Mrs. Donna Jones, his former wife, who said he was disturbing the peace in the neighborhood of 229 Harrison street.

Folk Songs Are Featured for Music Club's Annual Program

Folk songs throughout the world comprised the program for the annual May Rose luncheon of the Twin Falls Music club Monday afternoon at the Turf club.

Mrs. Gerald Wallace, Pocatello, former Twin Falls schools' music supervisor, presented the program. She gave the history of folk songs and presented the background of each song as she sang.

The program included "Grandma Bordeus," French folk song; "Woe Is Me," Ukranian; "Gopi," Hindu; an Indian folk song from the eastern United States; "Aye, Aye," South America; "El Vito," Spanish; "Silver Shoe," Japanese; "Soldier's Bride," Russian; "Link O'Day," Negro; "Adios," South American Indian; "Children's Song," Venuela; "Te Quiero," Mexican; "Sea of Stars," Hungarian, and "Spring Song," German.

Mrs. Jane Rainbolt installed officers. They include Mrs. A. D. Nye, president; Mrs. Irving McDonald, first vice president; Mrs. William Langley, second vice president; Mrs. Norman E. Stockwell, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Heuston, publicity chairman; Mrs. James Hall, historian, and Mrs. Norman McIntosh, who was unable to attend, secretary.

Mrs. Byrle Carr, who will lead the women's chorus next year, was introduced. Mrs. U. N. Terry talked on the nation's first Music week, held in Boise during May, 1917. The club collect was read by Mrs. Irving McDonald. Maryl Jo Fox, winner of the club's annual scholarship award, played two piano selections, "In Mid Ocean" from "Sea Pieces" by MacDowell, and "Elegy," Rachmaninoff.

The decoration committee, Mrs. John Birrell, chairman, Mrs. Tom McVey, Mrs. Norman Larson and Mrs. Allen Campbell, arranged maypoles in the center of each table with dolls, pipe cleaner figures and flowers.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. J. Garland Gibbs, outgoing president, turned over the gavel to Mrs. Nye, who presented her a past-president's pin.

The Oleander plant, flourishing in southern United states with its pink, red and white blossoms, originally came from the Mediterranean.

British Say Reds Have Most 'Subs'

LONDON, May 14 (AP)—The British government says Russia now has the world's biggest submarine fleet—500 underwater craft. Half of them reportedly are built for long-range operation.

But Christopher Soames, parliamentary secretary of the admiralty, said if war comes the NATO allies have "every intention of protecting the Atlantic sea lanes."

Soames told the house of commons last night that NATO would be bolstered by "the main elements of the royal navy, which are committed to NATO in the event of global war."

Discovers Why

PARIS, May 14 (AP)—A tax collector discovered yesterday why plumber Raymond Guichard, 69, had failed to answer his back tax notices for more than three years.

The collector entered Guichard's suburban apartment and found the plumber had hanged himself from his dining room chandelier years ago. All that was left was his skeleton—still dangling from the chandelier.

LONG PAPER READ

PHILADELPHIA, May 14 (AP)—A paper prepared by three British scientists, consisting of 33 pages of typewritten copy plus 11 pages of graphs and charts was read to scientists yesterday at the midyear meeting of the American Petroleum Institute. It was all about beetles and flies, and how to kill them.

IT'S FUN TO GO FORD!

More Westerners have lost their hearts to Ford's five exciting wagons...than to those of any other make!

"Ford country" is big... and distances great. But it's surprising how little that means in a Ford wagon. These space ships are built to travel far in solid comfort. In this Country Sedan, there's room for nine husky Westerners. And with the tail gate down and seats stowed, there's nearly nine feet of cargo space... room enough for a good-sized boat. A new "Inner Ford" gives all five Ford wagons plenty of heft with a 5-cross-member, full-cradle frame. And with a Mileage Maker Six or Silver Anniversary V-8 of the Thunderbird variety, you get more 60 per gallon. There's true functional beauty in the split-level roof line... and a breath-taking shoulder-high silhouette that stretches nearly seventeen feet. Never before has so little money bought so much luxury. This year, take to the road in style... in a Ford "glamour wagon."

Heavy Storms Ranging Over Much of U. S.

By United Press

A deadly slurry of floods and tornadoes subsided today in the South, but heavy rain storms continued to batter much of the northern two-thirds of the nation.

At least 11 persons have been killed in storms during the past two days, six of them in flood-ravaged Texas.

Winds Hit

Tornadic winds pounded Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas yesterday, and another wind storm with gusts up to 70 miles per hour ripped Sioux City and Council Bluffs, Ia., during the night.

An unconfirmed tornado at Memphis, Tenn., killed Mrs. Marie Gariety Bennett, 38, and collapsed a two-story brick building, injuring two construction workers. Mrs. Bennett was struck on the head by a chunk of concrete torn loose from a building by the storm.

Pupils Hurt

At Conway, Ark., 21 persons, including pupils at an elementary school, were injured when a tornado raced through the community, tearing into a school and several business buildings.

A squall line whipped into Iowa, tearing down trees and power lines in Sioux City and Council Bluffs. No injuries were reported in the storm.

Forecasters said it will be fair and colder today in New England, Pennsylvania and New England and fair and warmer in the southern Rockies and the Texas panhandle. Little change is expected elsewhere.

Canada Navy Investigating Sub Reports

HALIFAX, N. S., May 14 (U.P.)—At least four unidentified submarines have been sighted off Canada's east coast in less than a month. The Canadian navy is not overlooking the possibility that the mysterious undersea craft might be Russian.

The latest report came yesterday from the Fiacreville bay area where Mr. and Mrs. John Slade of Spencer's Cove reported seeing a submarine near their home early yesterday morning. They said the sub lay in the mouth of the harbor, 250 yards from shore, for half an hour before submerging.

Saturday, the St. John's Telegram quoted two of five men who reported seeing a mysterious submarine last Thursday, Gerald McCarthy and Russell Sheppard, both of Harbor Grace, said they watched the craft as it surfaced, maneuvered about the tricky harbor entrance on the west side of Conception Bay and then submerged.

Saw Surfaced Sub

Two fishermen saw a surfaced sub near New Harbor Island in mid-April and their report was investigated by U. S. planes. Arnold reports came May 2 from Fairhaven, 18 miles northeast of Placentia.

The Royal Canadian navy, which often investigates the reports in conjunction with the U. S. navy and air force, is reluctant to discuss what it has found or what it thinks about the reports.

But a navy spokesman at St. John's said last night the possibility that some of the subs might be Russian was not being overlooked.

The searches that follow reports of sightings indicate that the unidentified craft are not American.

Reluctant to Discuss Issue

Although the RCN is reluctant to publicize or discuss submarine reports, it is most anxious to get all the information about them that it can. Commander J. G. H. Bovis, Canadian naval chief in Newfoundland, recently called on "people who know the sea" to get in touch with royal Canadian mounted police or the navy if they spot what might be a submarine.

An unidentified submarine was reported off Nova Scotia March 24 and the destroyers Haida and St. Laurent left Halifax the next day. They were "engaged in anti-submarine exercises" off the coast for the next four days, a terse navy announcement said.

Because of the isolated nature of the fishing villages, reports are slow to reach authorities, and speculation is that many sightings are not reported, or that the reports never reach the public.

Portland City Commissioner Sues for Libel

PORTLAND, Ore., May 14 (U.P.)—Portland City Commissioner Stanley W. Earl yesterday filed a half million dollar libel suit against the Oregon Joint Council of Teamsters and the union's newspaper.

This was the latest development stemming from the year-long investigation of charges by Portland gambler Big Jim Elkins that the Teamsters union officers had conspired with certain public officials and others to expand and control vice operations here.

Earl, formerly head of the CIO in Oregon, asks $250,000 general damages and $250,000 punitive damages in his suit filed in state circuit court.

He based the suit on publication by the newspaper of two articles by a syndicated columnist (Drew Pearson) which Earl said attempted to link him to Elkins.

Earl said he was giving the columnist and newspapers which published the article an opportunity to retract. The Teamsters, he said, had refused.

The suit also states that members of the Teamsters joint council "repeatedly attempted to coerce and intimidate" Earl into changing his vote against outlawing pinball machines in Portland.

A number of persons under indictment here are accused of attempting to gain a monopoly in the pinball industry.

Earl was a witness before the senate labor-rackets committee in Washington, D. C. earlier this year and he told of efforts by certain Teamsters to influence his stand against pinball machines.

No Letup Sighted For Area Weather

By The Associated Press

The weatherman says there's no letup in sight from the Intermountain area's present spate of rain and cool temperatures—new storms keep moving in from the West and Southwest as fast as the old ones wring themselves dry over Utah and Idaho.

He says it's both cooler and wetter than normal, and the rainfall has once again threatened a flood along the Blackfoot river, where earlier flood fears had eased when the stream began dropping last week.

The river was back up today, covering low farmlands again and—once again—lapping at the tops of dikes that protect a new residential development in South Blackfoot.

Vehicles Crash

Minor damages were the result of an automobile accident Monday near the corner of Third avenue and Second street south. WDFA, a 1949 International pickup truck owned by Myron Askew, route 2, Twin Falls, started to pull away from the curb and collided with a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Austin Carr, route 3, Twin Falls. No injuries were reported.

Search Continues For Drowned Man

PROVO, Utah, May 13 (U.P.)—Searchers hunted in a steady fall of rain today for the body of a Colorado man who fell into Utah lake. Five deputies manned boats in the intensive search.

Missing was Drank Domingues, 21, of Del Norte, Colo.

Dominguez drowned Sunday afternoon when he fell from a motorboat in rough weather.

Buys Building

HOLLISTER, May 14—Mrs. Elsie Cutler, a teacher at the Hollister school, was high bidder at the auction of the old Hollister bank building here Monday afternoon. She bid $1,025 for the brick structure.

The building was the property of the Filer school district and had been used as living quarters for teachers for a number of years. Basil O. Waller, Filer, was the auctioneer.

U. S. Growing

WASHINGTON, May 14 (U.P.)—The population of the United States is growing at a rate of about 3,000 a day and is nearing the 180 million mark, the census bureau reported.

In the seven years since the regular 1950 census, the population has jumped by nearly 19½ million. The latest official estimate puts it at 170,510,000 last April 1.

Man Gets 60-Day Sentence on Theft

Harold Hermann McDrummond, 24, 447 Falls street, was sentenced to the Twin Falls county jail for 60 days Monday. He pleaded guilty Saturday in Twin Falls justice court to petty larceny.

McDrummond was charged with stealing a tire and wheel valued at $45. He admitted to police he had stolen other vehicles.

He was arrested Friday night after two men whose cars he had looted spotted him and obtained the license number of his car. Shortly thereafter he was arrested by city police.

He was taken to the county jail Monday afternoon.

DAM POWER DELAYED

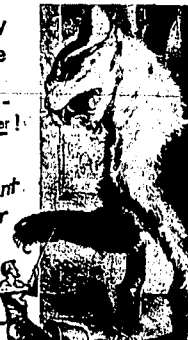

PALISADES, May 14 (U.P.) — Failure of a circuit breaker delayed pulling on the line the second 27,000 kilowatt generator at Palisades dam yesterday, the regional bureau of reclamation reported.

Woman Asks Trial On Arson Charges

GRANGEVILLE, May 14 (AP)—Mrs. Aleta Baldwin, 18, Spokane, waived preliminary hearing yesterday and asked she be brought to trial as soon as possible on a charge of first-degree arson.

Mrs. Baldwin was charged in connection with a house burning Feb. 15. Her husband, Delbert, pleaded guilty earlier to first-degree arson for burning a sister-in-law's home for a promised fee of $500.

The owner of the house, Mrs. Betty Baldwin of Kennewick, Wash., also was charged with first-degree arson and her husband, James, with attempted arson. They were released on bond pending trial in district court.

Petition Filed

A petition for a decree to terminate the life estate of Fred M. and Marion M. Aldrich in certain real property was filed Monday in Twin Falls probate court by William M. Aldrich, Buhl.

The petition states that Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich both are deceased. They had retained a life estate in property through a warranty deed.

A hearing of the petition is set for 2 p.m. June 3.

Board Election To Decide Issue

McCALL, May 14 (AP)—A school board election next Tuesday may decide whether Elbert Downing stays on as superintendent of the Donnelly-McCall school district.

At stake in the voting are the seats of Robert Keyes of Roseberry and Hank Knowles of Lardo, two of the trustees who put across a resolution asking for Downing's resignation.

Downing declared at a board meeting last night that he will take no action on the request until after the election. He thanked the board for its cooperation during his eight years as superintendent.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Every term and the teachers are distressed about the reorganization of their classes. Should this one go ahead? This one be held back? What would be best for the child? The decisions are difficult to make.

When a pupil has not, for one reason or another, completed enough of the grade work to enable him to build the next grade's work on it, he should not be asked to take on the advanced work. He will be swamped by the end of the first week and thereafter be miserable in the knowledge that he is failing. So will the teacher. That combination is bad for all concerned.

What is to be done about the left-back pupil? It is clear that he needs help, otherwise he would not have failed. Clear-cut help—unless something can be done to lighten his feeling of unfitness, he will bog down spiritually and that is about the worst that can happen to a school child.

Usually this child is proficient in some subjects, or at least can manage to keep his head above the failing level. If he is programmed so that he can go ahead in those subjects while he takes the ones he failed in with the lower grade, he will do much better. He will be likely to catch up on his weak lessons and keep even with the advanced ones and maybe, if things go well, be promoted on the upper grade level at the end of the following term.

What the failing child needs most is hope. If he sees the way open for him he will have the spiritual power to get down to work and accomplish something. Usually when an intelligent child fails he was either unready for the subject, and time will cure that, or he lost time for some reason. Again time and instructions will cure that. But he must have that hope. He must feel that faith of his teacher and his parents buoying him.

I would never leave a pupil back at term end without his full and free consent without this special programming. Very seldom is this necessary in a well-conducted school. The teacher knows early in the term that certain pupils are not progressing on schedule and takes steps to attend to the situation. Only occasionally will a pupil, intelligent and able, fail a grade completely. Usually he has certain strengths and these are acknowledged and the pupil encouraged by the very use of the special program.

Florence Schultz Lesson Guide at Meet of Women

Florence Schultz, county home demonstration agent, presented the lesson on "Keys to buying furniture," when the Community Ys met last week in the YWCA building.

She said, "Buying furniture can be a never ending adventure, with lots of different doors to open, as new pieces are added. New rooms are needed or new homes are chosen. To open any door, a key which fits is necessary. So in buying furniture we must have the right keys."

She then explained the basic factors one needs to consider, told about the seven "keys" to furniture buying and gave general information about wood and how to choose wood furniture.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, chairman of the International luncheon, thanked the group for cooperation in helping to make the luncheon a success.

Mrs. H. A. Gibbs, president, appointed Mrs. L. C. Sumner to prepare a calling "tree" to be put into effect next month.

Mrs. Walker Carr was a guest. Mrs. Gibbs was hostess.

PAY CHECKS THAT HELP YOU

Throughout the western states in which it operates, Union Pacific maintains a staff of nearly 50,000 employees.

The pay checks resulting from that operation are important not only to the employees but to you and your townsfolk. They represent buying power which stimulates and builds local business.

As a traveler, shipper, receiver or consumer of commodities shipped over the U.P., you are helping your community's growth by making it possible for the railroad to employ local people and to pay local taxes which go toward the building of schools, playgrounds and other civic improvements.

So when you ship or travel by U.P., you are playing a part in developing the community in which you live.

Cadillac

Third Generation at the Wheel!

"Like father, like son", the poets say.

And never was it truer than in the case of a great many fine Cadillac families.

For there are, in our land today, a number of families that currently boast as many as three generations at the wheel.

We mention this simply to underscore a great and dramatic truth about Cadillac—that, of course, is its unchanging goodness and quality.

For fifty-five years, the Cadillac name has signified one and the same thing to motorists everywhere—a motor car created at the highest level that automotive science would permit.

Over that time, Cadillac has attracted to the ranks of its owners the finest list of names to be found anywhere on the American motoring scene.

And, those who have followed the path to Cadillac in 1957 are enjoying the most abundant blessings of this ceaseless crusade for quality.

The new "car of cars", with coachcraft by Fleetwood, is beautiful and luxurious to an unprecedented degree. And its performance and handling ease are a revelation!

Certainly, the Cadillac car has now become an even wiser investment for an even wider circle of America's motorists.

If you have yet to acquaint yourself with these brilliant Cadillac virtues for 1957, your dealer will be delighted to tell you how easily you can make Cadillac a fine family custom of your own!

How Standard put $4,282,372 to work every day last year

...and what this meant to people in the Western Hemisphere

Port of Spain, Trinidad Exploration for possible new sources of oil covered millions of acres in the U.S., Central and South America, Canada, Alaska and the Bahama Islands. Seeking oil for your future use is one of our biggest expenditures ...$324,789 on an average day. Again last year we found more new oil than our wells pumped from the ground.

Gulf of Mexico We completed better than two new wells a day... 101 of them off the Texas and Louisiana coasts where drilling costs up to six times as much as on land. An average day's bill for drilling came to $431,516. This huge expenditure was necessary because a well may cost from $125,000 for one to over $1,000,000 and one out of every six wells drilled was dry.

Perth Amboy, New Jersey Standard and its operating companies from New Jersey to California, from Alaska to Venezuela hired 2,485 new employees last year. Our working family grew to a new high of 38,854. The wages and salaries they earned added to the economic health of communities in 46 of the 48 states and in many other nations of the Western Hemisphere.

U. S. A. Our Federal, State and other taxes amounted to $325,424 a day . . . enough to buy a helicopter for rescue work, or pay for complete training of three jet pilots every day. In addition to paying these direct taxes, in 1956 Standard collected for and passed on to Municipal, Provincial, State and Federal agencies $193,460,383 as sales and gasoline taxes.

Vancouver, British Columbia On an average day we spent $517,446 to keep equipment in repair and up to date... extending a wharf at Vancouver, adding to a refinery in El Paso, Texas or a pipe line to Boise, Idaho. This work provided employment for thousands of construction and maintenance workers as well as for the employees of firms supplying equipment.

El Paso, Texas Purchases of crude oil took $949,853 a day in areas such as El Paso, Texas and Bakersfield, California. Even though our own Western Hemisphere production was at a new high, we bought oil from many small and medium sized producers. To these people and their employees Standard was a good customer and an important source of income.

Salt Lake City, Utah Our 738 employees in Utah were among the total of 38,854 Standard Oilers who participated in benefit plans at the rate of $119,082 a day. One was our Stock Purchase Plan to which Standard added nearly twice the amount an employee deposited. Some other plans included sickness benefits, retirement pay and Company-paid life insurance.

Bajo Grande, Venezuela Increasing refinery output and improving the quality of our products are never-ending jobs. Last year one of our operating companies completed a new asphalt refinery in Venezuela and plans were announced for a future refinery near Everett, Washington. New equipment for our manufacturing plants called for investing $107,741 a day.

Boise, Idaho Although 43.6% of Standard's owners live in the West, Alaska and Hawaii, you'll find them almost everywhere. Stockholders include colleges, churches and banks, but most of them are individuals. Of every dollar we took in, 64/10 cents or $285,028 a day was distributed among Standard's 187,381 stockholders who own the Company.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE $1,567,348,030 STANDARD TOOK IN LAST YEAR can best be told in terms of people . . . many people in many lands. For example, Standard was a customer of more than 10,000 Western firms last year. One major item such as a refinery unit required the services of people in scores of other industries.

Moreover, many of the 1250 products we made from petroleum were raw materials for other manufacturers . . . from paints to cosmetics, from detergents to synthetic fabrics. Thus you'd never be able to count the people who benefited directly or indirectly from the $4,282,372 Standard put to work every day last year.

Through affiliated companies operating in the Eastern Hemisphere, Standard helped carry on exploration and development programs that provided better living for people in Europe, Africa, the Middle East and the Far East. Karen Adamson And W. H. Dellos Marry in Temple

CAREY, May 14—Karen Adamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Adamson, and William H. Dellos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dellos, were married Thursday in the LDS temple at Idaho Falls. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Temple President W. L. Kilpack.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon lace and net over satin. The bodice of lace was fashioned with a stand-up collar, V neck and long sleeves which came to a point over her wrists. The finger-tip veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She wore a pair of mother-of-pearl earrings borrowed from her aunt, Mrs. Vera Adamson. She carried a bouquet of blue orchids.

Attending the temple rites with the young couple were her parents, her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Coltrin, Burley; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hennefer, brother-in-law and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Vera Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Valdo Benson, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Patterson, Mrs. Harry Wickes, Mrs. Milford Sparks, Mrs. Charley Haskell and Mrs. Alma Peck, all Carey, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Olsen, Boise.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was held. The centerpiece was a three-tiered cake, frosted with white icing and decorated with clusters of pink rosebuds. It was topped by pink wedding bells and sprigs of lily-of-the valley. It was cut and served by the bride and bridegroom. Guests were joined by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dellos, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dellos, Jr., and school friends of the bride, Carol Patterson, Peggy Payne and Margaret Patterson.

For the luncheon and her going-away dress the bride chose a suit dress of green and trimmed in white, with white accessories.

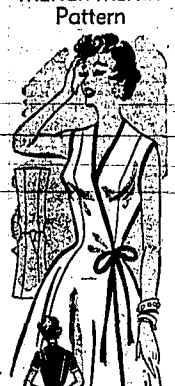

The couple left via Montana for Moscow, where he is a student at the University of Idaho. They will make their home there and attend summer school.

COWBOYS RETURN TO TWIN FALLS TONIGHT FOR 6-GAME STAND

Magic Valley Has Chance to Improve League Standing At Expense of Idaho Falls

After a week of rain-outs and slugfests, the Magic Valley Cowboys return to Jaycee ballpark tonight to open a six-game stand. The first contest, which will begin at 8 p.m., will pit the Cowboys against the Idaho Falls Russets. The Russets will stay in town until Thursday, vacating to make room for the Missoula Timberjacks. The Cowboys will be relying on the friendly confines of Jaycee park to improve their fourth place status in the Pioneer league. They currently are tied with Pocatello with a six won and seven lost record. A sweep of the Idaho Falls series would raise them to third, displacing the Russets.

Local fans probably will get a chance to view the newest member of the club, Jack Roberts, a right hand pitcher purchased from Yakima last week. Roberts joined the team in Missoula.

On Friday the Timberjacks, one of the hottest teams in the league, will move in for three games. Missoula, which was in last place several days ago, finally jelled and has been moving up the ladder quite rapidly. The club is now in fifth place, one and one-half games behind the Cowboys.

During the week-end, the two teams battled through three slugfests that showed the Cowboys weak in getting runners home after reaching base. In the three games played Saturday and Sunday, the Cowboys scored a total of 32 times as compared with 31 for Missoula. Yet, they lost two of the games. The Cowboys also outhit the Timberjacks 45 to 37, but couldn't bunch them effectively enough to get the necessary total.

Dressen Accepts Post To Vitalize Senators

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—Charley Dressen packed away his baseball uniform Monday in favor of a front office business suit. He accepted a job as assistant to the president of the Washington Senators. Six days after he was dismissed as field manager, Dressen took up the challenge of searching out new and improved talent for the club that hasn't finished in the American league first division since 1946.

Meeting one of Dressen's conditions, the club gave him a contract running through 1959. He said it will take that long or longer to revitalize the lackluster Senators.

Dressen's salary in the newly created player-hunting post was not disclosed. He was drawing a reported $35,000 a year as manager.

"I am satisfied," Dressen said. "I think the contract is a very good one. I only hope I can give the club a push."

Cocky as ever, he told newsmen: "I think I can do them a lot of good."

Calvin Griffith, the Senators' president, handed out a statement saying Dressen will scour the country for ball players "with special emphasis on the major league teams and minor league teams in the higher classifications."

Dressen's work also will entail "negotiating for players through purchases, trades and other available means," the statement said.

The appointment was announced after Dressen spent an hour with the club's directors, who first discussed details of the new job with him last Friday. After that session the 58-year-old Dressen asked for several days to mull over the proposition and consult with his wife.

"When I was told I could still keep my home in California and still do justice to the job," Dressen said, "it was satisfactory with me."

The ebullient, pint-sized Dressen was in his third season as Washington manager—and his 30th in organized baseball — when Griffith ordered to Detroit last Tuesday to replace him with coach Cookie Lavagetto. The Senators then had fallen cellar, where they still languish, and had lost eight straight.

Remington Has Perfect 100 In Wet Shoot

Tom Remington shattered 100 straight clay pigeons in the rain Sunday during the Twin Falls Gun club's weekly meet.

Remington made his score shooting at 16 yards.

E. Prentice smashed 25 pigeons in a row. Ray Blakeslee missed only one of his 25 while Kenneth Webb, Bennie Reiss, E. L. Patrick and L. Heidenman all got 23 in 25 each. Other scores included Fred Hutton, 21; H. Tyler, 18, and R. McMullen, 17.

In the doubles event, Reiss cracked up 36 and Webb got a 41 score. Likewise, Remington and E. L. Patrick shattered 40 apiece and Prentice followed with a 38 score.

It was reported club members will shoot under the lights Wednesday night after the exhibition to be given by Herb Parsons, famous expert marksman.

City Best Ball Tourney Goes Into Finals

Warren Larsen and Blaine Anderson squeaked out a narrow win in the municipal spring best ball tournament last week for the right to meet Connie Larson and Bob Packard for the championship.

Larson and Packard had a relative easy time in downing Bill Hart and Bob Rayborn to get in the finals, but it took Warren Larsen and Anderson 20 holes to defeat Dr. Glenn Hoss and Jess Lowman.

Larsen ended the sudden death playoff by taking a birdie on the 20th hole.

Cliff Whittle, city course pro, said the winners have this week in which to complete the tournament.

Pairings and results in the first flight include Varcel Winder and Dick Stocker over Lynn Hempleman and W. S. Packard 2 and 1, and Vey Glah and Duke Whitehead over Dick Sogn and LeRoy Klenzie 2 and 1.

Second Flight

Doug Borlase and Ely Russell over E. L. Standley and Dudley Driscoll 3 and 2. The second semi-final match has not been played.

Third Flight

Vince Blinkle and Lorin Laughlin over Perry Jensen and Frank Wegman 3 and 2, and Charles Ray and Ken Straughn over Les Hays and Bob Olin 3 and 2.

Fourth Flight

Ken McClain and Arnold Luft over Whitey Baird and Jess Rainbolt, 3 and 2. Semi-finals have not been completed.

Fifth Flight

Bob Honderich and Joe McCollum over Louis Kohlruss and John Lehen 8 and 4, and E. O. Walker and Jim Finegan over George Bean and Bob Hopp.

Junior Championship Flight

Scott Phillips and Bill Newcomer over Ray Dey and Rick White 8 and 7, and Bob Wildman and Mike Melville over Keith Melville and Louis Watson 3 and 2.

General Duke Is Out of Preakness

BALTIMORE, May 14 (AP)—General Duke pulled up lame after a workout at Pimlico Monday and was declared out of Saturday's $100,000-added Preakness.

The Calumet 3-year-old was sent a mile by trainer Jimmy Jones in one fast extended test of his bruised left forefoot since he ran second to Federal Hill in the Derby trial and completed it in one minute, 40 seconds.

But he began favoring the injured hoof just before leaving the track and 20 minutes later could not step on it without pain.

"You can tell the boys in the press box," said Jones, "General Duke is definitely out of the Preakness."

Ted Williams Continues to Lead Hitters

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP) — Vic Power of Kansas City, hit by a thrown ball in spring training and out the first 10 days of the season, has come back to challenge Ted Williams for the American league batting lead.

The 25-year-old first baseman collected 15 hits in 33 times at bat in last week's games a .455 pace to boost his average to .411. He's nine points behind Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger had seven safeties in 18 trips and dropped 11 points to .430.

In the National league, Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, last season's rookie-of-the-year, moved into the lead with a .396 mark. Robinson, in fifth place a week ago, climbed 39 points with an 11-for-31 performance.

Don Hoak, another member of the streaking Redlegs, moved up to second on five top pollers at .382. He's followed by Hank Aaron of Milwaukee with .379, Stan Musial of St. Louis with .370 and Dick Groat of Pittsburgh, .365.

Aaron dropped 38 points last week with 9-for 31 while Musial, the circuit's six-time batting king, fell 36 points with 6-for-23.

Aaron, however, hit for distance, slamming three homers to take over the lead in this department with nine. He's also in the top man in runs batted in with 25. Hoak has 22 RBIs followed by Brooklyn's Carl Furillo with 20.

The Milwaukee Braves hit four homeruns to lift his American league leading total to nine. Washington's Roy Sievers is the runs batted in pacesetter with 24.

KINDER RELEASED

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox Monday released veteran right-hander Ellis Kinder and will cut two more players by Wednesday midnight to reach the 25-player limit.

Modern Baseball Tabbed "Big Joke" By Former Major League Spitballer

MERIDEN, Conn., May 14 (AP)—Ed Walsh, whose famous spitball was the scourge of the American league 50 years ago, said Monday baseball was a greater game in those days.

"Today baseball is nothing more than a big joke," Walsh observed with the eye of his 78th birthday anniversary. "We were a tougher breed then. There were fewer rules. And sliders need coaches to tell us what to do."

Walsh, bedridden with an arthritic condition that has plagued him for 20 years, was scheduled to fly to Pompano Beach, Fla., to take up permanent residence there.

The doughty oldtimer joined the Chicago White Sox in 1904 and finished with the Boston Braves in 1917. He was elected to the Hall of Fame 11 years ago.

"The trouble with baseball today," said Walsh, "is that there aren't enough good pitchers and hitters. Too many .300 hitters. Too many homeruns because the ball parks are shorter. And there are too many rules."

He said the fans today spend millions of dollars each year to watch their favorite players show their stuff, but they're getting cheated. They want to see Ted Williams or Mickey Mantle get up at bat and hit, or at least get a chance to connect, said Walsh. "But what do they find, instead? The pitcher gets the final from a coach on the sideline in the bullpen to walk him in a pitch. That's not the way we played 40 years ago. We pitched to every batter. There were no such things as intentional walks.

"Another fault with baseball, said Walsh, is the restriction on pitchers. Take the spitball, for instance," said Walsh. "They outlawed it about 40 years ago. The spitball is nothing but a curve. Only thing is you wet two fingers to get a better grip and give it the English.

"But we still have the knuckleball and the slider, both variations of the curve. If they make one illegal they should make 'em all illegal or else bring back the spitball."

Commenting on the charge by manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs that Lew Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves threw the spitball, Walsh said:

"If Lew used it, I hope he continues to do so. As for Tebbetts he ought to keep his mouth shut."

Walsh was introduced to the spitball by his White Sox roommate, Elmer Stricklett, who toyed with it on the West Coast before he joined the Chicago club.

Walsh later became the master of the spitball. His big year came in 1908 when he pitched 66 games, winning 40 and losing 15. Walsh worked 464 innings, more than one-third of the team's schedule and in one stretch took the mound seven times in nine days.

"I also was a pretty fair hitter in my day," Walsh reflected. "I held the fungo-hitting record from 1912 to 1929 until a fellow named Babe Ruth came along."

Larsen and Purves Win Club Tourney

Ed Purves and Warren Larsen scored a 1-up victory over Ed Harper and Harvey Pierce for the championship of the Blue Lakes Country club spring best ball tournament Sunday.

In the first flight, Rulon Everton and Lynn Hempleman defeated Dr. L. M. Neher and Dick Cook and Bob Snyder picked up top honors in the second flight with a 2-up win over Charles Cosgriff and Al Nelson.

Championship in the third flight went to Howard Gerrish and Bob Carleson, who defeated the Rev. Norman Stockwell and Ted Hinton in a 19-hole contest.

In another prolonged match, Cleo McDowell and Herb Carlson had to play 20 holes before clinching the win over Leonard Mausa and Rolly Stiverson for the fourth flight crown.

J. C. Ashworth and Jim Purves copped the championship in the consolation round. Other winners in consolation play were Bob Stephan and L. H. Haslam, first flight; Dr. H. L. Stowe and Jack Claiborn, second flight; Charles Colner and Nelan Black, third flight, and Les Fillmore and Frank McAtee, fourth flight.

Cubs Buy Lattrell

CHICAGO, May 14 (AP)—Shortstop Jack Lattrell Monday was purchased by the Chicago Cubs from their Portland affiliate in the Pacific Coast league.

In making the announcement, Cub manager Bob Scheffing said Lattrell is expected to join the club Tuesday and will play short, with Ernie Banks moving to third base.

Roberts Can't Shake Gopher Ball Plague

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP)—Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, the majors' perennial gopher ball leader again has taken the National league lead in this baseball category. He has yielded eight homeruns in 48 innings pitched. Figures compiled by the Associated Press also revealed that Dave Sisler, Boston Red Sox right-hander, has given up eight circuit clouts to pace the American league. Sisler has appeared in five games and worked 35 innings while compiling a 3-1 won-lost record.

Roberts set a big league record last year by permitting 46 gophers. It broke his own mark of 41 established in 1955. He also topped the majors in 1954 with 35.

The 30-year-old righthander has won two games and dropped four this year. He has been tagged for two homers by Hank Sauer of the New York Giants and one each by Ozzie Virgil of the Giants, Gil Hodges, Gino Cimoli and Don Zimmer of Brooklyn, Dale Long of the Chicago Cubs and Dee Fondy of Pittsburgh.

Sisler's gophers were given up to Bill Skowron of the New York Yankees (two), and Billy Martin, Enos Slaughter and Gil McDougald of the Yanks, Gus Zernial and Harry Simpson of Kansas City and Eddie Yost of Washington, one apiece.

Right behind Roberts in the National league with six homeruns-off come Bob Rush of Chicago, Don Newcombe of Brooklyn, Herman Wehmeier of St. Louis, Brooks Lawrence of Cincinnati, Bob Friend of Pittsburgh and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee.

Hector Brown of Baltimore and Early Wynn of Cleveland are runnersup to Sisler in the American league, also with six. The records include Sunday's games.

Washington's Camillo Pascual, who put a new American league mark in the books last year by yielding 34 homers, has permitted only one in 1957.

The Cincinnati Redlegs' pitchers have allowed the most homers in the National league, 30. Pittsburgh follows with 23 and Milwaukee with 22.

Kansas City moundsmen top the American league in gopher balls with 22. Then come Detroit with 20, Boston 19 and the Washington Senators 17.

FORD PRACTICES

BALTIMORE, Md., May 14 (AP)—Whitey Ford, New York Yankee lefthander who has been sidelined more than a week with a sore shoulder, pitched batting practice yesterday and said later he felt no pain while throwing.

Europeans Ask for Halt of Mille Miglia Car Race

ROME, May 14 (AP)—Voices from all parts of race-crazy Europe rose in horror Monday to demand an end to Italy's Bloody Mille Miglia which took 13 lives Sunday. Cries of "never again" and "the race must go" echoed across Europe from newspapers, Italian senators and automobile club officials within hours after the race's tragic toll had been counted.

If the cries are heeded—as expected—Europe will have seen its last great open road race. Similar races still are run in Mexico and Argentina.

Sunday's 24th Mille Miglia—a thousand-mile grind on public roads half the length of the Italian peninsula and back again—cost the lives of Spanish, Dutch and American drivers and 10 spectators, including five children.

Millionaire Spanish Marquis Alfonso de Portago and his co-driver, Edmund Nelson of Beloit, Wisc., were killed when their powerful Ferrari racer hurtled off the highway only 40 miles from the finish. Their car, traveling more than 150 miles per hour, blew a tire and careened crashly into spectators lining both sides of the road.

In another accident near Florence, Dutch driver Josef Cantjens was injured fatally when his British Triumph skidded from the highway.

The 14th death also was attributed indirectly to the race. An Italian policeman was killed when he fell from his motorcycle while patrolling the race highway near Reggio Emilia.

Shocked friends of the speed-loving De Portago, 28, Monday went sorrowfully to a little church in Cavriana to pay their final respects.

Movie actress Linda Christian, seen often with the Spanish nobleman, came tearfully to the church in the early hours of the morning. Only a few hours earlier she had waved gaily at De Portago as he streaked through Rome.

Driver Wrote Own Obituary

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP)—"When I have actually lost control of the car there is absolutely nothing I can do except sit still, frozen with fear, and wait for events to take their natural course."

Thus, in this week's issue of Sports Illustrated, did the Marquis De Portago write his own obituary.

For Sunday, bucketing down an Italian road in the Mille Miglia, the 28-year-old Spanish daredevil lost control for the last time. A tire blew. The fleeing Ferrari slued into a milestone, hurtled against a pole and plunged berserk into a crowd of spectators.

"It always seems like an eternity between the time one loses control of the car until the time one hits whatever one is going to hit," he wrote.

He took 10 others with him as he passed through that one eternity into another. And you can take his word for it that they were afraid.

"Do we ever get frightened?" he penned his own question. "We get terrified. Fear is the awareness of danger. Whenever a driver makes a mistake and loses control of his car for even a split second, the danger is acute and he is frightened."

BIG KAMLOOPS LANDED

SANDPOINT, May 14 (AP)—Calvin Ranger, 11, Spokane, hooked a 22-pound kamloops rainbow trout Sunday off the mouth of the Clark Fork river. Calvin weighs 80 pounds.

Grain

CHICAGO, May 14 (AP)—Weakness in May deliveries of wheat, oats and soybeans influenced a general downturn in grain futures prices on the board of trade today. Short covering pushed wheat prices up somewhat in late trade, however.

May wheat was off a cent or more at times on selling due partly to government sales to exporters. New crop contracts held up better because of continued rainfall and possible crop damage.

Old style wheat closed 1¼ lower to ⅞ higher, May 2.15⅛-⅝; new style wheat ¼ to ⅞ higher, July 2.09⅛; corn ¼ to ½ off, May 1.30⅛-¼; oats ⅛ to ⅝ lower, May 69⅞; rye unchanged to ½ higher, May 1.17; soybeans ⅝ to 1⅜ lower, May 2.35⅛-¼, and lard 20 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, May 12.42.

Large Population of Beet-Leafhopper, Many Host Plants Reported by Station

portant spring breeding areas will be resurveyed to determine the necessity of spraying them for the control of this insect.

"Spring weather conditions affect the development of the leafhoppers and their host plants; therefore, another statement will be issued later, giving any indicated revisions in estimates of the size of the population and the probable date of the movement. The percentage of overwintered leafhoppers carrying the virus of curly top will also be given in this second statement.

"Curly top affects sugar beets, garden beets, beans, tomatoes, spinach, peppers, some varieties of squash and pumpkins, melons, petunias, zinnias, and other crops and ornamentals. Crops susceptible to the disease suffer the greatest injury if infected by the virus in the seedling stage of growth. Therefore, if the peak of the leafhopper movement into the cultivated districts occurs at a period when such crops are in the seedling stage, a greater crop loss can be expected than would otherwise be the case.

"The planting of susceptible crops should be timed, when possible, to avoid this early infection. During the past 22 years, the average initial spring movements have started on May 24 and reached their peak on June 24. Most of the leafhoppers enter the fields within a week or 10 days before the peak.

"The above information on current beet-leafhopper conditions in southern Idaho is derived from the following studies: (1) Beet-leafhopper populations during the fall of 1956, (2) weather and weed host-plant conditions during the fall of 1956 and winter of 1956-57, (3) dissection of overwintered females for parasitization and egg development, and (4) spring studies.

"The Russian-thistle acreage in the fall of 1956 was the largest on record, being 20 per cent greater than in September 1955. This acreage of Russian-thistle produced and supported next to the highest fall population of leafhoppers on record. Germination of winter annual host plants started the middle of October before all the Russian-thistle completely dried, permitting the leafhoppers to transfer from summer to winter host plants with very little mortality.

"Weather records maintained at the Twin Falls station of the entomology research division showed the temperature was 0.6 degree fahrenheit above normal and the precipitation 0.51 inch above normal from Oct. 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957. October and November, 1956, and January, 1957, were the only months during this period that showed below-normal temperatures.

Monthly precipitation was below normal except for October, December and March. Comparatively mild temperatures, together with timely precipitation during most of this period, was favorable for winter survival of the leafhopper. Conditions during April have delayed egg laying and development of the spring generation. However, studies show that nymphs began hatching in the warmer areas about May 1.

"Within the cultivated areas of western Idaho-eastern Oregon and Magic Valley, there are a great many small patches of wild mustards, principally flaxweed, pepperweed, and tumblemustard, growing on idle and waste lands. These areas occur along roadsides, canals, ditchbanks, pastures, and earth-covered potato cellars, and in similar places.

"These small areas may range in size from a few square feet to an acre or more and frequently are the source of leafhoppers that cause the greatest amount of damage to beans and other susceptible garden crops grown near these patches.

"The average populations of overwintered females infesting these patches are considerably higher this year than last.

"Since most of these weed patches are not irrigated, it is recommended that they be seeded to a grass, such as crested wheatgrass or even cheatgrass, which are non-hosts of the beet leafhopper.

"The following general information is furnished regarding the habits of the beet leafhopper during the seasons of the year covered by this and the statement that is to follow later:

"The beet leafhopper is a sun-loving, dry-climate insect. In southern Idaho it passes the winter in the adult stage. Females are fertilized in the fall and live until spring, but males die during the winter. Egg-laying normally begins in March, and adults of the first, or spring, generation appear in May or June. This generation is produced on spring weed hosts, chiefly mustards. Under favorable conditions the seeds of these weeds germinate in the fall, but occasionally additional germination occurs in the spring.

"These weed hosts have become established on idle, waste, and overgrazed lands. They mature and dry about the time the spring-generation leafhopper reached the adult, or winged, stage, and when weather conditions are favorable for flight, the leafhoppers move to their summer hosts. They travel with the wind and infest practically all of the host plans in their path.

"It is during this spring movement that the cultivated districts are infested. The leafhoppers moving into the cultivated areas alight first in the fields nearest the spring breeding grounds and gradually move farther into the cultivated lands; consequently, susceptible crops situated nearest the breeding grounds are more heavily infested than those farther away and are, therefore, more seriously affected with the curly-top disease transmitted by the leafhopper."

Student Marriages Discussed, Teachers Hired at Board Meet

Student marriage problems, hiring of new teachers and equipment purchases were features of the regular meeting Monday night of the board of education for class A school district No. 411.

The matter of $27,500 earmarked for development of an athletic field at the high school was discussed briefly. Although the public had been invited to advise the school board on use of the money, only one person appeared besides school personnel. Ivan Garnand, representing the executive board of Lincoln PTA, discussed the matter briefly with coaches and board members.

It was agreed another meeting should be called for a general discussion. The meeting was set tentatively for next Monday night. The $27,500 was earmarked from the $1,163,000 bond issue in 1955 for use in developing an athletic field at the high school. It was pointed out Lincoln field was needed for a playground for children attending Lincoln school.

High School Principal V. L. Lefebvre reported 31 high school girls and two boys have been married during the current school year. He said 18 of the married girls dropped out of school, but 13 are still attending school. The principal said the independent attitude of some students who marry results in a disciplinary problem.

Board members advised Lefebvre that the same rules should apply to all students, whether married or single. It was pointed out that students who refuse to conform to school rules should be expelled, regardless of marital status.

The board adopted regulations regarding summer school which has been conducted here for a number of years. It was noted state requirements do not provide for diplomas to be given students who have used summer studies to complete requirements in less than the normal time.

Resignations of W. A. Pray and Beverly Ingraham were accepted. The board hired Mrs. Cliff Benson to teach fifth grade at Washington school; Bernice Felt, sixth grade at Morningside; Billy D. Jacobsen, high school industrial arts, and Marvin E. Reynolds, junior high school physical education and health. Reynolds, who has been coaching at Castleford, will replace Bill Hays who has resigned to move to Washington.

Asst. Supt. Arthur M. Kleinkopf reported there are eight teaching vacancies in the district for next year, including three elementary, two junior high school and three high school.

Bids were opened on playground equipment but action was deferred to permit study by the administration. From the April 22 bid opening, the board voted to accept the $393.21 bid of the Hull Equipment company, Pocatello, for 50 chairs and the Caxton Printers for 90 desk units at $21.48 each.

Board members passed a resolution against moving the grand piano used in the junior high school auditorium except to other school facilities here. The Twin Falls Community Concert association had inquired about the possibility of using the piano next year for concerts in the Filer high school auditorium.

A calendar was approved for next year. School will start Sept. 3 and close May 29. Holidays will include Idaho Education association institute Oct. 28 and 29, Veterans day Nov. 11, Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 28 and 29, Christmas vacation from Dec. 21 to Jan. 5 and Easter vacation April 3 and 4.

Holmes Gets Back on Job As Constable

Elton E. Holmes, constable of Twin Falls precinct who resigned May 1, announced his reinstatement Monday. Holmes says he was reinstated by Twin Falls county commissioners after presenting a petition of 20 signatures requesting his reappointment.

He had resigned, he said, because the constable duties were conflicting with his sign painting work.

The petition presented to the commissioners is typewritten on a single sheet of paper and is headed "Office of Constable, Claude Brown court."

The petition says "We, the undersigned, are asking the honorable county commissioners of Twin Falls county to hereby reappoint Mr. Elton E. Holmes to the office of constable. This appointment would run from May 13, 1957, to Jan. 14, 1959. We, the undersigned are of the Republican party."

Ten signatures follow the statement. Immediately below the 10 signatures another paragraph is typed. It says, "This appointment will be greatly appreciated. A constable in this county and city, we believe is a necessity and Mr. Holmes was doing a fine job. Mr. Holmes says he will accept. Thank you."

The 10 signatures above the last paragraph are those of M. H. Jensen, E. A. Kmeck, G. E. Bennett, M. C. Tanner, Walter M. Mildon, Mrs. Walter M. Mildon, George B. McDonald, Richard H. Barton, H. A. Cohen and W. C. Rife.

The remaining 10 signers signed the back of the petition. There are Eugene DeMond, Dale Henman, Nelson C. Jarvis, A. L. Richardson, E. J. Jellison, C. V. Prester, P. C. Malberg, jr., Jack D. Young, Ronald L. Lowe and Verne Mitchell.

Reunion Planned By Class of 1947

Plans were mapped for a reunion of the Twin Falls high school class of 1947 July 27 at the Turf club at a meeting in the Idaho Power company auditorium Monday night.

Mrs. Wade Quigley is general chairman. Other committees include Mrs. Dwaine Stimpson, reservations; Mrs. Frank Williams, reception; Mrs. Drex Livingston, Mrs. Jack Jones, Mrs. Jack Radtke and Mrs. James Perkins, decorations; Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. Glen Koloed and Mrs. Livingston, publicity; Fred Harder, Mrs. Perkins, Richard Irwin, Mrs. Robert Wales and Drex Livingston, entertainment, and Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Radtke, Mrs. Webb Malone and Mrs. Lawrence Golay, mailing and contacting.

Residents Watch Blackfoot Water

BLACKFOOT, May 14 (UP) — Apprehensive residents at the south edge of Blackfoot today continued watch on the swollen Blackfoot river which continued to flow within a series of dikes that protect their homes.

For the second time in two weeks the river threatened to overflow its banks and flood a 100-home development in the south Blackfoot area. The river already had twice inundated U. S. 91-191 for a half-mile strip south of the city and the Diggie and Riverton roads on the Fort Hall Indian reservation were under water.

Officials said rain fell in the Blackfoot area throughout last night and murky skies continued to cover the area this morning, adding to the tension.

The weather bureau in Boise said rain should start slackening in eastern Idaho today, however, which would help level the swollen river.

Mrs. Mary Gillett Claimed by Death

BURLEY, May 14 — Mrs. Mary Jensen Gillett, 72, died at 5 a.m. Tuesday at the Cottage hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Gillett was born April 11, 1885, at Provo. She was married to Leon F. Gillett May 3, 1919, at Provo. They came to Burley shortly after their marriage and farmed south of the city. She was a member of the LDS church.

Surviving are her husband, one son, Homer Gillett, Burley; two daughters, Phyllis Gillett, Burley, and Mary Gillett, Pendleton, Ore., and four sisters and one brother in Utah.

Funeral services are pending at the Payne mortuary.

3 Escapes Injury In Area Accident

BUHL, May 14 — Three persons escaped injury at 9 p.m. Monday when an 18-year-old driver lost control of his car after striking a rough spot in the road as he approached a curve and the vehicle went into the borrow pit.

James L. Kirtland, Hagerman, told Deputy Sheriff Curtis Pryor, Buhl, he was driving north on the Clear lakes road four and one-half miles north of Buhl when he met another car. He said he pulled over and hit a rough spot and lost control.

Harold Miller and Stanley Wright were passengers in the car. Damage to the front end of the Kirtland's 1951 Chevrolet was estimated at $300.

Degree Conferred At Grange's Meet

SHOSHONE, May 14—The fourth degree was put on by the Magic Grange degree team at the Friday night meeting. Mrs. George Horn, lecturer, was in charge of the arrangements.

Receiving the degree were Mr. and Mrs. James Franks, Wood River Center Grange; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lapp, Mr. and Mrs. William Kerner and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Jacobensen, Magic Grange.

On May 24 Upper Big Wood River Grange will put on the first and second degrees at Magic Grange hall. Refreshments were served Friday evening under direction of Mrs. Vivan Jackson.

Land Board Will View Claim Case

BOISE, May 14 (AP)—The state land board said today it has taken under advisement a claim by Howard Anderson of Blackfoot that he has an interest in a mineral lease near Leadore in Lemhi county. The lease is held by Anderson's brother, Edward.

Howard Anderson appeared at a board hearing here along with two attorneys, Robert Kerr of Blackfoot and Z. Reed Millar of Boise.

State Land Commissioner Arthur Wilson said the lease is a general minerals lease.

Veteran Climbers To Inspect Wreck

CHILLIWACK, B. C., May 14 (UP)—Eight experienced mountain climbers braved snowslides and hazardous mountain conditions on Mount Slesse today to inspect the wreckage of an airliner which carried 62 persons to death in Canada's worst air disaster.

The mountaineers were sent to the scene of the crash of a Trans-Canada air lines North Star that disappeared on a flight from Vancouver to Montreal Dec. 9 and was not seen until a chance discovery by two mountain climbers on Sunday.

Hearing Held for Charges of Theft

BURLEY, May 14 — At a preliminary hearing in probate court Monday afternoon, Henry Nielson, Jackson district, charges his son, Donald Nielson, with grand larceny in the theft of 405 steel posts and 12 bales of barbed wire.

Nielson claims his son brought the posts to his farm, turning them over to him for money his son owed to him. Later, he claims, his son took the posts and 12 bales of wire.

In addition to the father, two brothers of the defendant testified against him. The brothers are Ernest Nielson and Glen Nielson. Other witnesses were Mrs. Glen Nielson and Sheriff LePage Layton.

Probate Judge Henry W. Tucker bound Nielson over to district court. Nielson was released on his own recognizance.

Hank Says Actors in Britain Have Flaw, They Talk English

By Henry McLemore

LONDON—There is only one drawback to the London theater for the American—the actors speak English.

Were it not for this single flaw, London would be heaven for the theater-goer. There are many more plays running here than in New York, the fare is more varied and, most important, tickets cost a fraction of what they do at home.

McLemore

Choice seats in the stalls (orchestra section) cost between $2.50 and $3.00, and, usually, they can be had by simply applying at the box office a few hours before curtain time.

The casts contain internationally-known stars, and many of the theaters are of historic interest, such as the Drury Lane and the Haymarket. Also, one is quite likely to see a member of the royal family as an added attraction.

If only the actors and actresses did not speak English it would be perfect. By English, I mean English English. English so English that they sound as if they were speaking through a clipped hedge, a clipped moustache, a tea cozy, or with their mouths full of tinned kippers or jellied eels.

English actors all speak very quickly. Unintelligible word after unintelligible word slide out together. Their plays last the same length of time that ours do, but the actors must speak ten times as many words. Characters ask for a light for a cigarette with the same speed with which they announce the discovery of a body in the billiard room.

It is true that if one goes to the theater every night, and pays strict attention to every word spoken, in time one will recognize enough words to be able to grasp what the play is about.

One will eventually come to know, ANY, that the word that sounds like "clarges," is the equivalent of "must obliged."

Others I have learned, which are of inestimable help, follow, along with their translations:

Flarpath—It isn't necessarily so.

Shoindmwina—Show the vicar in, Edwina.

Howdwarspict—How dare you, inspector?

Tish—Terribly sorry, Ronald. Do forgive me.

Ta—Goodbye, ol'chap. We'll meet outside the British museum in a fortnight.

Idevocher—I am devoted to you, Clarice.

An ability to read lips is not the help one would think it would be. This is because an overwhelming majority of actors do not move their lips when talking. I still don't know whether the actor who played the villain in a play starring Flora Robson has a dent in his head or not. He kept his lips as sealed as a pullman window, even in his biggest scene.

English revues are easy to understand, however. If one is familiar with the name John Foster Dulles one has no trouble at all, because half the quips and a good number of the skits are based on Mr. Dulles' personality and policy.

Party for Parents Is Given by FFA

WENDELL, May 14—More than 120 persons attended the parents party given by the Wendell FFA chapter Friday at the grade school.

Roger Dixon, president, welcomed the guests. Willard Davis reported on the national convention in Kansas City, Mo., last October.

Awards were made by Dixon and Irons to Robert Gibson, Lloyd Peterson, Alan Nieffenegger, Lewis Hall, Dixon and Dennis Jones.

Honorary membership in the FFA were given to Murray Satterfield, Leon Bringhurst, Ray Fisher, Earl Schrenk and Loyal Crosby.

Chapter officers installed for 1957-58 were Dennis Jones, president; Harry Brown, vice president; Lewis Hall, secretary; Gary Bradshaw, treasurer, Stanley Johnson, reporter, Denny Woodruff, assistant reporter and Larry Ryby, sentinel.

Tree Planting in Idaho Has Ended

BOISE, May 14 (AP)—The Idaho forestry department reported yesterday it has completed the 1957 tree planting program by placing some 7,500 Ponderosa pine seedlings in plots.

Most of the trees were planted in the vicinity of Idaho City with some going to root west of Smith's Ferry and some planted west of Cambridge.

The department said it originally planned to plant between 20,000 and 25,000 seedlings this year but stock ran short from the University of Idaho nursery.

100 Below

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—The navy said yesterday the lowest natural temperature ever recorded by man was reported from the south pole Saturday when the official thermometer registered 100 degrees below zero.

The previous record—low fahrenheit reading of 90 degrees below zero was recorded in the northern Siberian village of Verkoyansk in February of 1892, the navy said.

The continent of North America occupies 8 million square miles, about 16 percent of the world's land area.

GOP 'Moderns' Organized for Ike's Program

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP)—The "modern Republican" bloc in the senate began organizing today to put on a show of support for President Eisenhower when he finishes his budget appeal to the nation tonight.

The President will try to enlist public support for his embattled $71,800,000,000 spending budget in a nationwide TV-radio speech. It will be carried live over four radio and one TV (NBC) network at 9 p. m., EDT, and by film over the other TV networks (CBS and ABC) at 11:15 p. m., EDT.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said last night the President is "going to straighten out . . . a lot of misinformation kicking around on the budget and national security."

He admitted the President's appearance will be a public relations job—a job he has had many times before.

However, the speech will be his first nationwide appeal for support of one of his budgets.

Much of his own party already was ranged against him in the budget debate. But Sen. Clifford P. Case, R., N. J., was lining up administration backers in the senate to assert support for the President to be indicated by senate speeches tomorrow and perhaps later this week.

The battle of the budget also resulted in these other developments:

The house prepared to begin debate this afternoon on its $3,592,-589,757 agricultural appropriation bill, which emerged from committee $272,556,860 below the amount requested by the administration. It was doubted that any attempt would be made to erase the committee-approved reductions. In fact, some congressmen sought deeper ones.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson again attacked the administration in a senate speech yesterday for its handling of the budget and alleged conflicts between administration spokesmen.

Suggesting that tonight "may well be a night of decision" because of the Eisenhower speech, Johnson told the senate:

"I have a great deal of sympathy for the President of the United States. He apparently must convince not just the country but members of his own official family."

First Buddy Poppy Sold to City Manager

City Manager Joseph Latimore purchases the first Buddy poppy sold in Twin Falls during the 1957 sales held by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Carole Eschelman is the salesgirl. The city commissioners Monday night authorized a proclamation making May 17 and 18 as Buddy poppy days. (Staff photo-engraving)

Court Takes Case For More Study

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP)—The supreme court has taken under advisement another in a long series of legal maneuvers by convict-author Caryl W. Chessman to escape the gas chamber at California's San Quentin prison.

Chessman was convicted in 1948 on 17 counts, two of them carrying the death penalty, involving robbery and attempted rape in Los Angeles lovers' lanes. He has evaded the gas chamber for nine years by various legal actions, much of the time acting as his own attorney.

In arguments before the supreme court yesterday, Chessman, represented by San Francisco Attorney George T. Davis, maintained he had been deprived of due process of law.

Boy Scout Gain

VENTURA, Calif., May 14 (UP)—Mrs. Edythe Lowe made an unexpected contribution to the Boy Scouts' clothing drive yesterday.

When scouts came to the door and asked for clothes her little boy thought they had been sent by the laundryman and he turned over a bundle containing the family wash.

Supper Served

RICHFIELD, May 14—A Mothers' day covered dish supper was served at the Community Methodist church basement Sunday evening.

Charles Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Ann Mason, played a trumpet solo, a mothers' day poem was read by Mrs. J. O. Helderman. Speaker was the Rev. John B. Sims, Kimberly Methodist church pastor.

Nicaragua Denies Honduran Attack

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 14 (UP)—The government today denied a charge that Nicaragua had attacked a Honduran town Sunday and broken the troop withdrawal agreement worked out by the organization of American states.

The military junta that rules Honduras charged yesterday that Nicaraguan troops attacked the town of El Viljao, about 20 miles inside the Honduran border.

An official Nicaraguan statement said that on the contrary Nicaragua was pulling its troops back from the border in complete compliance with the OAS agreement and did not attack any Honduran town.

Classes Hold School Event

WENDELL, May 14—The junior-senior banquet and prom were held Saturday evening at the grade school and high school auditoriums.

The banquet at the grade school began at 7 p.m. The address of welcome was given by Ed Klein, junior class president, who served as toastmaster. The response was given by David Stephenson, senior class president.

Perry Hanson read the class obituary, the class will was read by Jeri Gates and Lewis Hall and the prophecy by Roger Dixon and Marilyn Petersen. Sophomores in charge of the table decoration were Joyce Jaramillo, LaDonna Clark, Verna Dills, Ann King and Joyce Hanson.

The prom was held at the high school auditorium. Klein and Nedra Wiswall led the grand march. William Brady and Miss Wiswall were crowned king and queen of the prom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivons and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peay were chaperones. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Galo Ydarraga, Mrs. Thomas Frith and Mrs. Keith Klein.

Colombia Junta Views Siege Ban

BOGOTA, Colombia, May 13 (UP)—Colombia's new military junta studied today how soon it could lift the state of siege imposed by ousted President Gustavos Rojas Pinilla.

Brig. Gen. Juan B. Cordoba, secretary of the junta, said last night the order definitely would be rescinded and the only question was one of timing.

Cordoba said there would be no confiscation of the property of the deposed president and Rojas was free to ask permission to return to the country at any time. He arrived in Spain yesterday.

Election Scheduled

BLISS, May 14—A mill levy election will be held at the Bliss school from 1 to 7 p.m. Friday in the high school building to raise three mills for general maintenance.

The mill levy last year was 25 mills for maintenance and operation and four mills for retirement of bonds. If the three-mill levy is passed the total levy will be 29 mills for maintenance and four mills for bonds or 33 mills. Anticipated revenue on a valuation of $1,528,779 at 33 mills would net $71,083.54 but the anticipated need for the coming year is $76,162.54.
